PREFACE

Church histories are sacred chronologies. Considered locally, they preserve the Christian aspirations as expressed in tangible deeds by the best citizens of a community. The founders of Christ Church have left behind them a noble legacy. Here in the village of Shoenersville is located a union Lutheran and Reformed church whose history dates back to Revolutionary days. The present building is the third house of worship, which proves that the spirit operative in the hearts of the pioneer founders has been more durable than wood and stone. Generations have come and gone but the House of God stands — for it was founded upon the spiritual rock which is Jesus Christ our Lord.

In 1910 a history of the church was prepared and printed in book form. Many of these copies have found their way into the homes of members and friends of the congregations and are considered treasured possessions. Since then, in connection with the Quinquennial Reunions small leaflets have been prepared of the historical facts and burial records during the interims. The multiplicity of these leaflets, although complete, is not satisfactory, for events cannot be thus arranged in order and there is also the possibility of losing one or more of the copies. It is therefore considered advisable that new histories should be printed of this historic church at periodic intervals.

This year, in connection with the sesqui-centennial celebration, it is fitting that a new history be published. The work is arduous. But, considering the splendid co-operation of the members of both congregations in having made such a large contribution to the history of the church during the past few years, its narrative is considered a most happy task.

The compilers of the present history of Christ Church have not changed the arrangement of the historical data as it is found on pages 2-6 of the original history. The committee in charge, the names of which the reader will find in the introduction, has prepared the same with diligence and accuracy. May this part of the history of our church remain a monument, honoring the memory of those who have taken a deep interest in their beloved Zion and who cheerfully labored for the perpetuation of good which characterizes this historic institution. We shall add here such items of interest that have occurred from 1910 to the present.

INTRODUCTION

The history of the United States is faithfully taught in our public schools. The state, county and township are apt to be forgotten, thinking they are local and therefore well known. But it is a mistake; we know too little of our local affairs. We teach church history, tracing it in all its phases from the days of the apostles. We should not be ignorant of the growth and development of our churches. We are inclined to learn all about our church's history, but the history of the local congregation is hidden in a few old church records, held in the church safe, as if no one should disturb their slumbers.

To add interest to the 130th anniversary of Christ Church, Shoenersville, it was resolved to publish a history of the congregation and its organizations, also a record of all members and the cemetery record. To this end both pastors, Mr. O. H. Cressman, Isaac Dewalt and Peter Gruver were appointed a committee to gather material and proceed with its publication. The general history of the church was compiled by Rev. I. B. Ritter; also the biographies of the Lutheran pastors. Rev. F. A. Guth wrote the biographies of the Reformed pastors. Oliver H. Cressman, Chas. A. Heist, Isaac Dewalt, Victor H. Schleicher and Preston Snyder wrote the history of both the Sunday school and choir. Mr. Oliver H. Cressman furnished the copy of the cemetery record.

We hope that we have been able to give you something of value. The very name you need to complete your family tree is possibly found on its pages. Briefly, we have tried to serve you and our church, which service has proven to be not labor, but a pleasure.

HISTORY OF THE UNITED GERMAN LUTHERAN AND REFORMED CONGREGATIONS OF CHRIST CHURCH,
SHOENERSVILLE, LEHIGH COUNTY, PA.
1780 - 1910

The church is located in one of the largest and most fertile townships in Lehigh County — Hanover. Hanover Township was originally a part of Allen Township, Northampton County. Before Northampton County was divided into Northampton and Lehigh Counties, a petition was presented at the January, 1798, Court of Quarter Sessions for a new township. It was granted on August 15, 1798, and was named Hanover by Court. In 1812 Lehigh County was erected and Hanover Township was divided, about two-thirds of its territory being formed into Hanover Township, Lehigh County.

The earliest schools in the township were located in Shoenersville, Rittersville and West Bethlehem. Hanover, with Allentown, accepted the school law during the same year in which it became a law (1834) while the other townships rejected it. The school located near Christ Church, Shoenersville, was taught for five terms, from 1850 to 1855, by Rev. Owen Leopold, who at the same time also served as organist of the church. The teacher's desk used at that time is still in use in the school or lecture room of the frame house adjoining Christ Church.

Shoenersville is situated on the line between Hanover Township, Lehigh County, and Hanover Township, Northampton County, and is about midway between Catasauqua and Bethlehem. Its name is derived from Adam Shoener, who settled there in 1784. Adam Shoener was born in 1763 and settled at the place that bears his name in 1794. He opened a tavern, called the "Blue Ball," which he kept until about 1837 when he built a brick house near Christ Church, where he died on October 28, 1848, aged 86 years.

The first store in the village was opened near Christ Church, now (1910) the property of O. H. Cressman, in about the year 1825 by Samuel Saylor, who hailed from Easton, Pa. This store was discontinued between 1860-1870. About 1859 the present hotel was built by Jonas Snyder, and on the opposite corner a stone building was erected alongside of the old tavern. It was opened by Joseph Pierson and John Dech; Mr. Dech retiring, Richard Snyder became interested in it in 1864. Later he became sole owner and sold it to Elias R. Benner. After his death it was sold by the heirs to H. A. Benner, who razed it and erected on the site the present (1910) combined store and dwelling.

The first postmaster in Shoenersville was Samuel Saylor, the office having been opened in his store in 1825. His successor was Richard Snyder, who served until December 8, 1875, when E. R. Benner was appointed. His son, H. A. Benner, became his successor and served until the office was discontinued (1908) due to us patrons being served by Rural Free Delivery from Allentown.

In 1908 the first telephone line to the place was built from Catasauqua.

Christ Church was organized in 1780 as a Lutheran and German Reformed Union Church by the Rev. Johann Friederich Ernst (Lutheran) and the Rev. Mr. Gross (German Reformed). Soon after its organization a small log church was built almost opposite the present brick church.

From the first Lutheran Church record, written by Rev. Johann Friederich Ernst, we glean the following concerning the first Union church. We translate:

After several fruitless consultations they finally united by the grace of God and to the glory of His name and the spread of Christ's Holy Gospel, to erect a church. With this object in view, they unitedly purchased 3 acres and 22 rods of land, which was admeasured to George Newhard and Philip Stuber and Balzer Rochel, April 10, 1770, upon which to erect a union meeting house. Both congregations united under certain conditions and elected as a building committee, on the Reformed side, the now departed Peter Beisel and Jacob Gloeter (Clader) and in Peter Beisel's vacated place, George Newhard, Sr.; on the Lutheran side, Nicolas Sterner and Valentine Waldman. On March 5th, 1780, they began, in poverty and great difficulties, to erect the church on the above mentioned property. By autumn, 1781, the building had been completed so far that they were able to conduct services therein. The Reformed, therefore, employed the Rev. John Ingold, and the Lutheran, the Rev. John Friederich Ernst to serve them with the means of grace, November 4th, 1781. Rev. Ingold began his ministry on the 24th Sunday after Trinity, viz., Nov. 25th, and Rev. Ernst on the 3rd Sunday in Advent, December 16th. (Here fully a quarter page is torn out or destroyed by "book worms"?) Page 2. * * * * was dedicated and named Zion's Church in the name of the Holy Trinity by Rev. Wack, who had been invited by the Reformed, and Pastor Ernst (Lutheran).

Title to the tract of three acres and 20 perches, upon which the log church was erected, was given for two pounds, 17 shillings and 11 pence, November 5th, 1801, by John and Richard Penn through their attorney, John R. Coates, to Casper Ritter, of Hanover Township, Trustee for the Lutheran, and Peter Beisel, of Allen Township, Trustee for the Reformed Congregation.

Casper Ritter, above mentioned, was a delegate to the Lutheran Synod which met at McAllister, York County, Pa., in 1780, at which time he witnessed the ordination of Rev. John Conrad Yeager, who later became his pastor.

The present church (1910) stands on ground purchased by George Brader and George Schaeffer, Trustees of Zion's _____ Church, of Hanover Township, for $166.25, and comprising a tract of only 133 perches. On August 13, 1828, another tract of 92 perches adjoining the three acres and 20 perches was purchased from Peter Koehler by George Jung (Young) and Peter Kelchner, Trustees of Christ Church, for $34.50. The fourth purchase was the ground lying south from the present brick church, comprising nine and seven-tenths perches for one dollar. The parties granting the deed to Owen Ritter, Milton Kurtz and Martin Zellner, Trustees of Christ Church, were George Deily, Francis Deily, Sarah Deily, Samuel Colver, Robert J. Yeager, Clara Deily, John Kent, D. W. Levan, Mary Kent, E. Ford Kent. The deed bears the date, March 30, 1883.

The first record of a Lutheran baptism was made by the officiating pastor, Rev. Johann Friederich Ernst, November 24, 1782, when he baptized Barbara, daughter of Henry Ritter and wife Barbara, who was born September 14, 1782. Martin Ritter and his wife Barbara, standing as sponsors. The Reformed record was opened by Rev. Mr. Gross, who records his first baptism as being Catharine, daughter of John (Yost) Gratz and wife Anna, born October 10, 1781, and baptized December 23, 1781, sponsors being Conrad Laubach and wife Catharine.

The first child buried on the old cemetery was John, infant son of Conrad Young, aged 3 years and one day, and the earliest death record of an adult is that of Anna M. Kleckner (in) who died December 10, 1789, aged 23 years.

The second church was built of stone in 1819, on the site of the present one, the corner-stone was laid on May 10, 1819, and the structure dedicated on the following Christmas. The masonry work was done by John Miller, who received $629.65 for his work. Frederick Gude was paid $1,075 for "joiner" work. The first collectors for the new church were appointed in 1819 and consisted of Jacob Bast, John Sweitzer, George Brader, John Sterner, Henry Snyder, and John Swartz. They together raised $9,945.40. Several years later another committee consisting of William Lerch, George Kurtz, Christian Clewell, Debraham Schwartz, Jacob Deshler, and Johannes Moyer were appointed. They reported $7,032, making the total cost of the stone church, $16,977.48.

The stone church answered the needs of the congregations until 1872 when it was torn down and on May 26, 1872, the corner-stone of the present brick church was laid. Cain Semmels, of Catasauqua, was the contractor, who completed the church for $16,900. The building committee consisted of Jacob Cressman, Owen Ritter, Thomas Nagle, John Sweitzer and Milton Kurtz.

The dimensions of the present church are 44x75 feet. The plan is a modified one, patterned principally after the First Reformed and First Presbyterian churches of Catasauqua. The pulpit, gallery, pews in main auditorium and the doors are patterned after the First Reformed, and the windows, pews in basement and the spire are like those of the First Presbyterian Church, of Catasauqua.

Although the contractor received only $16,977.48 for his work, the church costs the congregations considerably more, counting interest on a long standing indebtedness.

On December 31, 1885, the total cost, including the heating plant purchased from R. W. Leibert for $450, matting purchased from Shimer & Laub for $133.00, was $21,997.28. On the same date they still carried an indebtedness of $3,550. A strenuous effort had been made to pay off the debt in 1882, when it was resolved "that a tax should be levied according to the valuation of each member belonging to the congregations." The indebtedness was finally cancelled and today the congregations are in a flourishing condition.

A combined dwelling and school house was erected by the congregations adjoining the church in 1850. Here Owen Leopold resided for five years, taught the school and served as organist.

That the congregations were economical in the administration of their affairs we read in the records of the joint proceedings of the church councils, May 27, 1854: "Resolved, that hereafter when in the opinion of said vestry, it becomes necessary to wash (out) and clean said church thirty-one cents shall be paid to females employed for said purpose per day, buckets to be furnished by hands employed and other material, etc., by the vestry."

The constitution governing the present "united" congregations was adopted November 3, 1849, and is countersigned by Conrad Shimer, George J. Laubach, Jr., Trustees; William Rohn, John Knauss, John Laubach and Henry Snyder, Jr., Elders; George Breder, Aaron Koch, William H. Lerch, Solomon Snyder, Isaac Huber, John Sweitzer, Jr., Thomas Craig and Joseph Lichtenwalner, Deacons.

About 1865 the question of a new cemetery was agitated. An association was formed, called the Shoenersville Cemetery Association: two acres of land were purchased from Samuel Saylor, adjoining the cemetery of Christ Church, lots were laid out, trees planted and the ground made ready for use in January, 1866. Mrs. Jacob Reichert was the first to be buried there. The present officers are: President, J. M. Ritter; Secretary, O. H. Cressman; Treasurer, Victor Schleicher; Collector, O. H. Cressman; Board of Managers, C. A. Heist, J. P. Lichtenwalner, Jr., J. J. Mittman, Adam Bittner and C. O. Cressman. The grounds are well kept, making one of the nicest cemeteries to be seen at any country church.

During the summer of 1905 the church was beautified with metal walls and ceilings and other improvements costing about $1,600. It was reconsecrated August 6, 1905. The front part of the church rests on the foundation walls of the old church which seem to be substantial, but about two-thirds of the rear part rests on new foundations. During the spring of 1908 the northwest corner gave way, the repairing of which, together with the purchase of two new heaters, cost the congregation about $700. All obligations are promptly met. The congregations raise annually for missions, pastors' salaries, etc., over $1,600.

The one hundredth anniversary of the church was celebrated on October 13, 1880, when the cash receipts were $189.50. The first reunion of members and friends of Christ Church and Sunday School was held May 31, 1873. Liberal donations were made to the church on that occasion which are still in use. The second reunion was held in 1880, the third in 1895, and since then every five years. These reunions are held on a week day, the community making it a holiday, and large gatherings greet the speakers. The members are exceptionally liberal in entertaining; visitors and friends are provided with free dinner and supper and thus the day is socially spent.

The Lutheran congregation has today two of its sons in the Christian ministry, viz., the Rev. A. P. Pflueger, of Ringtown, Pa., and the Rev. A. L. Benner, of Brooklyn, N. Y. The congregation is proud of its sons. Rev. O. E. Pflueger, brother of Rev. A. P., spent a part of his childhood days in the community.

The present members of the Lutheran church council and Reformed consistory are: Lutheran—Elders, Peter Graver and Adam Bittner; Deacons, Charles Heckman, Titus Heckman, H. A. Benner and Quintus Schaeffer; Trustee, Oliver Laub; Secretary, H. A. Benner; Treasurer, Titus Heckman; Union Treasurer, Oliver Laub; Union Trustee, Joseph Woodring. Reformed—Elders, Peter Gruver and Irwin Hackman; Deacons, Asher Treible, Albert Kelehner, Alfred Remaley and Frank Hess; Trustee, J. J. Mittman.

CHURCH CONSISTORY AND COUNCIL, 1910

FROM 1910 to 1925

From 1910 to 1925 there are no building projects to record. The fathers had builded well. During this period only minor changes and repairs were necessary. It is noted that improvements were made, usually, before the quinquennial reunions. This was as it should have been. Why should not the Spiritual Home appear most attractive on festive occasions? The garnishment of the building and grounds is indicative of the pride that was taken in God's house. And such pride is honorable. It is an evidence of healthy spiritual life.

One extensive improvement was made, however, after a reunion. In fact the 1920 reunion was its impetus. The balance of the proceeds of the reunion was used as a nucleus to create a fund for the beautifying of the Old Cemetery. Mr. James P. Lichtenwalner, Jr., was appointed to superintend the work. Special rededicatory services were held on May 22, 1922, in the morning, afternoon, and evening. The expenses, which amounted to $1500.00, were largely met by individual subscriptions. The investment has been a good one. How pleasing to the eye it is to see the markers of the old graves placed permanently in straight rows, on a beautiful, level, sod covered cemetery!

It should be borne in mind that great activities centered in the church during these years. English services became more numerous. Evening services were introduced. The Sunday school enlarged its scope of work. A larger attendance at services was noted. Better road conditions and the more general use of the automobile have until this time been assets to religious progress. The official work of the church was also well done. Officers have made high account of their duties. Consecrated men and women gave their time and talents to promote the Christian cause. Time and again the auxiliaries of the church, the Sunday school, Young People's Society, and the Ladies' Aid Society, have given large contributions towards improvements. The auxiliaries of Christ Church are worthy children. They have always maintained a filial spirit.

The most outstanding events which have occurred during these years are the changes of pastors and of parishes.

On May 1, 1911, the pastoral relationship of the Rev. F. A. Guth to the Reformed congregation was dissolved. From that date until October 1, 1911, the charge was supplied by the Rev. Titus Strock. The Rev. J. S. Bartholomew assumed the pastoral duties on October 1, 1912. He was installed by a committee of East Pennsylvania Classis on November 19, 1912, the Revs. H. J. Ehret, Edward Lentz and Titus Strock officiating.

The Rev. I. B. Ritter died May 11, 1916. He had been the pastor of the Lutheran congregation for ten years. He was loved by all. His taking ill and unexpected passing away was a shock to the whole community. He preached his last sermon on April 23, 1916. After his death the Rittersville (now East Allentown) congregation, at its own request, was separated from the Shoenersville congregation and became a self-sustaining charge. The supply pastor of the Shoenersville congregation was the Rev. P. A. Behler, who also confirmed a class in the summer of 1916.

The election of the Rev. J. J. Schindel, D.D., on November 19, 1916, consummated the formation of the Mickleys-Shoenersville Parish. Rev. Schindel took charge of the pastoral duties, January 1, 1917, and was installed January 14, 1917. Rev. Schindel, after a brief pastorate, resigned on April 26, 1918, the same to take effect on June 1st. He had accepted a call to St. Mark's Evangelical Lutheran Church, Philadelphia, Pa.

Shortly after the resignation of Rev. Schindel, a committee of the Mickleys-Shoenersville charge extended an invitation to Rev. H. T. Sell, then pastor of the Weissport charge, to preach to the two congregations. An election was announced and Pastor Sell was given a unanimous vote. He took charge of the ministerial duties on September 1, 1918, and was installed at Mickleys on November 17, 1918, by the former pastor, the Rev. J. J. Schindel, D. D.

The Rev. Joshua S. Bartholomew, who had faithfully served the Shoenersville-Rittersville Reformed charge for almost ten years, died February 23, 1921. His death occasioned several changes. The Rittersville congregation, having grown in numerical strength, desired to be constituted a separate charge. At a congregational meeting held on May 1, 1921, it was decided by vote that Christ congregation should be an independent charge. After the request was granted by Classis, the congregation, on June 26, 1921, elected the Rev. John L. Guth, a son of the congregation and also a son of a former pastor, as supply pastor. Rev. Guth served the congregation until May 16, 1924, when he relinquished his obligations in order to accept the pastorate of the Jordan charge in Lehigh County, Pa.

Rev. George J. Laubach was elected pastor of the congregation on April 27, 1924. East Pennsylvania Classis was then petitioned to unite Christ congregation with the Howertown charge, which petition was granted. The Reformed charge now comprises the following congregations: St. John's Howertown; St. Peter's, Seemsville; Christ, Shoenersville.

Immediately after the 1925 reunion the building or renovating movement, which started some ten years previous, got enough impetus to warrant the calling of special Council and Congregational meetings and listen to ways and means and approximate cost of beautifying the church.

At one of the meetings the following reasons for remodeling the church were submitted: First, the furnaces and the pipe organ were practically worn out; second, the basement was no longer large enough to accommodate the increased Sunday School attendance and to properly divide the classes; third, the winding stairway to the main auditorium of the church was contrary to the laws of the state; fourth, the Ladies' Aid needed room for the expansion of their program; fifth, the general appearance of the building was not in harmony with the beautiful surroundings of the Church; and sixth, it was pointed out that the present generation should keep the present building in repair, which the previous generation erected and paid.

Even though there were differences of opinion there was always enough favorable sentiment at meetings and in the congregations to keep the project alive and on March 21, 1926, the first election was held at a congregational meeting. The members voted 74 to 7 in favor of remodeling. The vote to accept the plans as submitted by a committee carried 58 to 28. Mr. Elwood DeLong, of the DeLong Furniture, who had given valuable aid in beauti-fyng a number of local churches, addressed the meeting and told the members what could be done with the church building. He previously convinced the Board that it was unwise to tear down the old building, which some had advocated. The meeting appointed Mr. Henry V. Stettler, of Reading, as architect.

On May 20, 1926, bids were received on proposed plans. All bids were rejected because they were considered too high. Plans were changed and another election was held July 11, 1926. This meeting voted for the building program as it was later carried out. It eliminated the social room in the basement which was the hope of the Ladies' Aid, because of the extra expense and the danger it might incur to the building.

The accepted plans included a 12 foot addition to the rear of the building, new heating plant, new exits, new floors, new stairways, new lights, new furnishings in Sunday School room and main auditorium, new windows, new doors, new organ, new linoleum in Sunday School room, etc.

The following building committee was appointed: J. U. Remaley, T. C. Heckman, O. W. Rudolph, H. W. Heckman, F. L. Rhine, George Hess, George Fenstermaker, L. J. Bender, and both pastors.

On July 25, 1926, the first meeting was called to inaugurate a building fund campaign. Mr. Francis Berkeymeyer, of Allentown, addressed the gathering. Committees were appointed and $3200 was pledged by those present. A building fund nucleus had been created by the proceeds of the 1925 reunion.

On August 5, 1926, the contract for the general alterations of the church was awarded to Allen H. Leibensperger, of Fullerton, the lowest bidder, for the sum of $27002.

Shortly afterwards other contracts were awarded. The furniture contract was given to DeLong Furniture Company, for the sum of $8345, not including the Sunday School furniture. The heating and plumbing contract was awarded to H. A. Koons & Co., of Allentown, for the sum of $4033.75. Charles E. Durner, of Quakertown, received the organ contract, for the sum of $5850. Mr. Durner allowed $365 for the material of the old organ. The lighting fixture contract was awarded to O. Diefenderfer, of Allentown, for the sum of $927. Marvin Sterner, a member of the Church Council, was awarded the wiring contract without a specified figure. J. M. Case & Co., of Reading, received the stained glass window contract, for $2950. For lack of space smaller contracts are not mentioned.

On October 24, 1926, regular cornerstone services were conducted by the congregations. The pastors had charge of the services. Addresses were delivered by Rev. Thomas H. Krick, of Coplay, and Rev. A. W. Lindenmuth, of Allentown. The cornerstone was donated by Frank Oswald, of Mickleys. In the cornerstone there was placed a Bible, Sunday School hymnal, Reformed Church hymnal, Lutheran hymnal, Parish Record, Parish Messenger, The Lutheran, Reformed Messenger, Morning Call, and names of persons who contributed a dollar or more to the building fund.

Rain somewhat marred the success of the cornerstone services, nevertheless the building project was underway and the members had the vision of a beautiful church.

The first financial campaign netted $12,096 in cash and pledges. The amount was not sufficient to warrant carrying out the proposed building program but on October 4, 1926, new hope was realized when the officers of the joint board were called to the office of Lawyer Oliver W. Frey, of Allentown, to receive a check of $21,675.90 from the Joseph Kidd estate. This was one of the largest bequests ever received by a church in the Lehigh Valley and was the source of great rejoicing amongst the members and friends of our church. There was no clause in Mr. Kidd's will specifying for what purpose the money should be used, consequently it was invested where it was needed most at the time, viz: the building project. However, it was felt by a good many members that at least a portion of the bequest should be used in creating an endowment fund. The scarcity of the money at the present time has prevented the realization of that hope.

During the building operations arrangements were made to have Church and Sunday School services in the Shoenersville Grange Hall. This proved a very satisfactory temporary arrangement.

By the Fall of 1927 the church was completed and ready for dedication. Hopes were realized and ambitions attained. Very little was done to the outside of the church building, but the inside presents a rich, stately, churchly appearance which is conducive to worship. The church must be seen to be appreciated. The outside appearance of the church does no justice to the inside. If a new church had been built as some advocated probably most of the money would have been spent on the outside and the inside furnishings would have suffered due to lack of funds.

The colonial architecture, which seemed strange to some at first, portrays the modern taste of society and preserves the colonial element in the history of our church which is now one hundred and fifty years old.

Rededicatory services were conducted on Sunday, October 2, 1927, a remarkably warm day, and continued during the week day evenings. The dedication week was undoubtedly one of the most significant and outstanding weeks in the history of the congregations. The church was packed at all the services. The members had a most enjoyable time, due not only to the interesting and edifying services, but because of the fine fellowship and favorable comments received from former members and friends. One of the interesting and novel features of the dedication program was the installation of a microphone and loud speakers installed by Mr. Paigne, of Reading, which privileged the overflow crowd in the basement and on the outside to hear and enjoy all the services.

The following speakers participated in the services:—Rev. J. O. Henry, Rev. J. B. Stoudt, Rev. J. L. Guth, Rev. P. A. Laury, D. D.; Rev. H. S. Paules, Rev. H. J. Ehret, Mr. Francis Berkemeyer, Mr. Artanus Snyder, Rev. J. J. Schindel, D. D.; Rev. E. P. Pfatteicher, D. D.; Rev. E. E. Sensenig, Rev. Allen S. Meck, Rev. Allen L. Benner, and twelve neighboring pastors. Our choir had as their guests during the week the Mickleys, Howertown, Snyders, Christ Lutheran, Allentown, and Bath Reformed choirs.

The organizations of the church all participated in the dedicatory services and are assuming financial obligations to remove the church debt. Under a different heading we record the various activities of the auxiliaries of the church.

We are pleased to submit to our readers the following other items of interest and events that transpired during the last five years:—

CHURCH COUNCIL, 1930

On January 31, 1926, the congregations voted favorably on a new revised constitution, which was carefully prepared and submitted by a regularly appointed committee. This committee endeavored to embody the needs of the congregations and the requirements of the incorporated laws of the State. A copy of the constitution was forwarded to every member.

Parish papers are being published by both congregations, copies of which are sent into every home of members. The purpose of the bulletins is to felicitate our members every quarter, to bring to their attention the activities of the church, to announce our services and to record the ministerial acts. The cost of publication is met by advertisements from leading business men of the community.

There were no pastoral or organist changes during the past five years. There were, however, changes in the janitorship. Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Heist, who served the congregations for twenty-five years as caretakers, relinquished their work on April 1, 1928, and moved into their new home in the village of Shoenersville. Mr. Heist, however, continues to be the active Sunday School superintendent and the secretary of the church council and the joint consistory. Mr. and Mrs. William Correl were appointed as sextons and they served for two years. On January 1, 1930, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Miller were elected caretakers. They moved into the janitor's home and serve at the present time.

In the Fall of 1928 great changes took place in the vicinity of Shoenersville when the Allentown Chamber of Commerce bought a number of farms in the community for the purpose of locating an Allentown airport. The airport was established and a corporation was formed. Soon after this so called Allentown Airport was located at our doors, the Chamber of Commerce, thru her officers and directors, prevailed upon the joint board of the church to remove the church steeple. They pointed out that the high spire was a hazard to aviation and a liability to the church.

After promising to remove the old steeple and replace a smaller steeple at their own expense, the joint board called a congregational meeting which by a substantial vote granted permission to the Chamber of Commerce to remove said steeple. The steeple is still there and no one can tell when it will be removed. The Airport Corporation has been very charitable in donating to the church a fifteen foot strip of land extending from the northern extremity of the church property down to the Shoenersville road, but up to the present time they have neglected to fulfil their obligation of removing the steeple which they voluntarily assumed.

The latest notable improvement made by the church was the grading of the parking grounds at a cost of approximately $400. This improvement considerably beautified the appearance of the surroundings of the church and the convenience will be of untold value. To the satisfaction of all the cost of the same was readily met. The choir, Sunday School, joint board and members helped to remove the debt.

All indications are that the future prospects of the Shoenersville church are bright. With our beautiful surroundings, improved highways from Catasauqua, Allentown and Nazareth passing through Shoenersville, a bus route passing our doors, Allentown and Bethlehem extending almost to our church and with new homes going up constantly in our community, we cannot help but feel that our stocks are going up and that our building debt of $6200 will soon be removed. The Lutheran membership at the present time is 375, the Reformed membership 225.

Lutheran Council — Elders: Titus C. Heckman, Charles A. Heist, Harvey W. Heckman, Walter Huber; Deacons: Floyd Schaefer, Samuel Rodgers, L. J. Bender, Howard Schaefer, Harvey L. Heist and Marvin Sterner.

RECORD OF OUR SERVICE MEMBERS

Christ Church has not been oblivious to its patriotic responsibilities. Nineteen young men of these congregations enlisted in our country's service during the World War. One of this number paid the supreme sacrifice. After the young men had been honorably discharged from the military service and had returned to their respective homes, the feeling of joy in this community was given appropriate expression in the Welcome Home services conducted in this Church. A service flag had been hung on the wall of the auditorium, which was later replaced by an honor roll.

The names of the men in-service follows: Sergeant, B. William Laubach; Corporal John V. Shankweiler; Privates, 1st Class: Wilson Huber, Victor A. Daniel, Stewart Treible, Emory D. Sterner, John J. Johnson, Clinton A. Colver, Paul Hackman, Herbert D. Walter, Charles Johnson, Warren P. Snyder, David J. Schleicher, G. Dewey Fenstermacher, Walter S. Hess, Paul Faust, William A. P. Snyder, Raymond D. Colver and Raymond V. Bartholomew, who died in France.

Shoenersville has the honor of having thirty-two Revolutionary soldiers buried in its cemetery. Through the influence of several interested church members and the co-operation of the Liberty Bell Chapter, D. A. R., of Allentown, a monument, bearing a bronze plate on which is inscribed a list of the thirty-two veterans, was erected on the cemetery. On August 29, 1925, the official Unveiling took place with appropriate services. Mayor Gross, of Allentown, delivered the address on the cemetery and Judge McKean, of Easton, delivered an address in the evening, in connection with a festival held under the auspices of the Sunday School. The Sunday School deserves a large share of credit for the moral and financial support it has given towards the erection of this historic marker.

The names as they appear on the bronze tablet follow: Joseph Albright, John P. Beisel (Sergeant), Michael Bieber, Joseph Daniel, Jacob Dech, Peter Deshler, Michael Eberhard, Henry Fatzinger (Sergeant), Abraham Gross, Joseph Heller, Michael Huber, Matthias Hummel, John Keim, John Keiper, Ludwig Keiper, Michael Kelehner (Corporal), Joseph Kidd (Ensign), John Kuntz, Michael Meyer, Michael Miller, John Casper, Henry Paterson, Michael Reichard, Casper Ritter, John Rockel, Frederick Roger (Corporal), John Schaffer, John Sterner (Drummer), Jacob Weber, George Wolf (Father of Governor), Christian Wolfin, John Young.

"Lest we forget" it is fitting that we list the names of the soldiers who are buried in our cemetery who have participated in wars other than those already mentioned. We honor the twelve men who were Union soldiers in the Civil War; two veterans of the War of 1812; one in the Mexican War, and one in the Spanish-American War, yearly, on the afternoon of the Sunday nearest to Memorial Day, the Sunday School in conjunction with the J. K. Taylor Post, G. A. R., and the Captain O. A. Luckenbach Camp Son of Veterans, conducts appropriate services in commemoration of their deeds.

REFORMED PASTORS

J. D. GROSS — 1780-1794

Rev. John Daniel Gross, a well educated man from Holland, in 1765, addressed himself to the Synod of the Reformed Church in Pennsylvania for examination and ordination to preach the holy gospel. He was examined in theology and languages and found exceedingly well versed. His delivery was inviting. His credentials from Marbury and Heidelberg were genuine and fine. Rev. Hendel's testimony of his conduct and diligence at the University of Heidelberg, as long as he knew him there, was of very great weight to the Ref. Synod at Lancaster, Pa. In this manner we ordained him and located him at Whitehall, where he served four congregations with zeal. A committee reported at Synod, in 1775, regarding Dr. J. D. Gross, "we must freely say, that to our best knowledge and conscience, he is as upright a man and as competent, diligent a person as can be desired. He has labored with much zeal and diligence in his four congregations, where many new ministers would not have wanted to locate, by reason of the woods, rocks and water, and rudeness of his people. That he has not only won the love and esteem of his congregations in particular, but has secured the friendship and commendation of all who know him."

In 1780 Synod of the Reformed Church of Pennsylvania added two more congregations to his charge, in which Christ Reformed Church was included. In this field he labored with much success till 1794, when he accepted a call to a chair in a New York Theological Seminary, where he spent the remainder of his life in preparing young men for the holy ministry.

REV. FREDERICK W. VAN DER SLOOT — 1773-1831

Rev. Frederick W. Van Der Sloot was born in Dessau, Germany, November 11th, 1773, and prosecuted his classical and theological studies in Europe; and then emigrated to this country in 1801. At a meeting of Synod in Philadelphia, May 18th, 1802, he was licensed and ordained to the gospel ministry. In 1802 he moved to Allen Township, Northampton County, Pa. Here he served charges in Germantown and Philadelphia until 1827, when he received a call from congregations in York and Adams Counties—Pigeon Hill, Holtzschwam and Strothers, in York County; Bermudian, Oxford, Abbottstown and Berlin, in Adams County.

In August, 1831, Rev. Van Der Sloot began to be afflicted with dropsy of the chest. He became gradually weaker, till it pleased the Lord to remove him by death. During his sickness he was daily visited by his numerous friends from the congregations which he had served, who highly esteemed and honored him for his many virtues, his learning and his pulpit talents. He died, surrounded by his many friends, in Paradise Township, York County, on the 14th of December, 1831, aged 58 years, one month and three days. The last words which he uttered, only a few minutes before he expired, were: "Ich hoere die heiligen Engel Gottes im Himmel singen."—I hear the holy angels of God in Heaven singing.

He is buried in the graveyard connected with the Holtzschwam Church, in York County, Pa.

Rev. Van Der Sloot was an excellent linguist, having been well acquainted with the Latin, Greek, Hebrew, French and German languages. He had fine talents and taste for poetry, and composed many poems in his time, a number of which have been printed. Those poems on the burning of the theatre in Richmond, Virginia; on the burning of many deaf and dumb in the Philadelphia Asylum, as well as the hymns which he composed for the laying of the corner-stone and consecration of the church and organ in Philadelphia, are of special merit.

When he was already confined to his bed, in his last sickness, he received a letter from the sons of the Rev. William Hiester, of Lebanon, requesting him to compose some verses for his tombstone, which he did. They will be found quoted in the life of Rev. Hiester.

It is said that on funeral occasions, when he had no hymn book convenient, he composed verses impromptu, and always very suitable to the occasion. He had also a great talent for music. He was gifted with an exceedingly strong voice, which could be distinctly heard over a multitude of singers. Two of Rev. Van DerSloot's sons entered the holy ministry.

REV. JOHN HENRY HOFFMEIRER

Rev. John Henry Hoffmeirer was born in Anhalt-Coethen, in Germany, on the 11th of March, 1760, the youngest of several brothers. His parents occupied a respectable position in society, but are chiefly worthy of praise for their sincere piety and devoted attachment to the great principles of the German Reformed Church. On the third day after his birth he was incorporated with the Church by holy baptism. As a child, he enjoyed all the advantages of a pious training, in a family in which a living Christianity predominated, and he was thus brought up "in the nurture and admonition of the Lord."

Severe chastening with which his father's house was visited, exerted a sanctifying influence upon him. One after another of his brothers had fallen victims, at a certain age, to a fatal disease, which seems to have made this family its mark. He early was left to solace the hearts of his deeply afflicted parents, but on arriving at the same age at which his brothers had died, he, too, was seized with the same fatal malady. Now, thought he, I also shall die, and lie in the cold grave beside my buried brothers. The occasion deeply impressed his mind. Who shall tell what fervent prayers arose from his youthful heart, beseeching the Lord, for his afflicted parents' sake, that the life of their only surviving son might be spared to them? Amen.

This sickness occurred about the fourteenth year of young Hoffmeirer's age. To this dispensation, we may probably date the origin of his purpose to devote himself to the Christian ministry. The fervent prayers for his recovery were heard. His health and strength returned. Soon afterwards he was admitted to full membership in the Church by the solemn rite of confirmation.

On the 8th day of May, 1793, he united in holy wedlock with Gertrude Van Asen. On the following day they set sail for America. The voyage of the young missionary and his wife seems to have been a remarkably short and pleasant one. To cheer them under the trials of leaving home and their native land, as they truly supposed, forever, they had the company of another party who had embarked on the same holy errand. These were the Rev. C. L. Becker and his wife. They reached Baltimore some time in July, 1793.

Soon after his arrival in America his attention was directed by some ministers of the Reformed Church to a vacant field of labor in Northampton County, Pa., to which they also gave him recommendations.

He immediately set out, with his companion, for this vacant charge. On the 18th day of May, 1794, the Synod of the Reformed Church convened in Reading, when Mr. Hoffmeirer presented himself for examination and ordination. He sustained a creditable examination, was regularly received and ordained. On the 21st of May he became pastor of a large charge in Northampton, including Christ Reformed Church, at Shoenersville, Pa., where he worked faithfully until 1800, when he accepted a call to the Baltimore Reformed Church.

On August 8th, 1806, Rev. Hoffmeirer accepted a call from the First Reformed Church, Lancaster, Pa. At this place he worked zealously until he was called to his reward.

His body lies buried directly under the pulpit of the First German Reformed Church, in Lancaster. Immediately above the grave, you notice a monumental marble tablet, on the walls of the church, recording his memory in the following inscription:

ERECTED

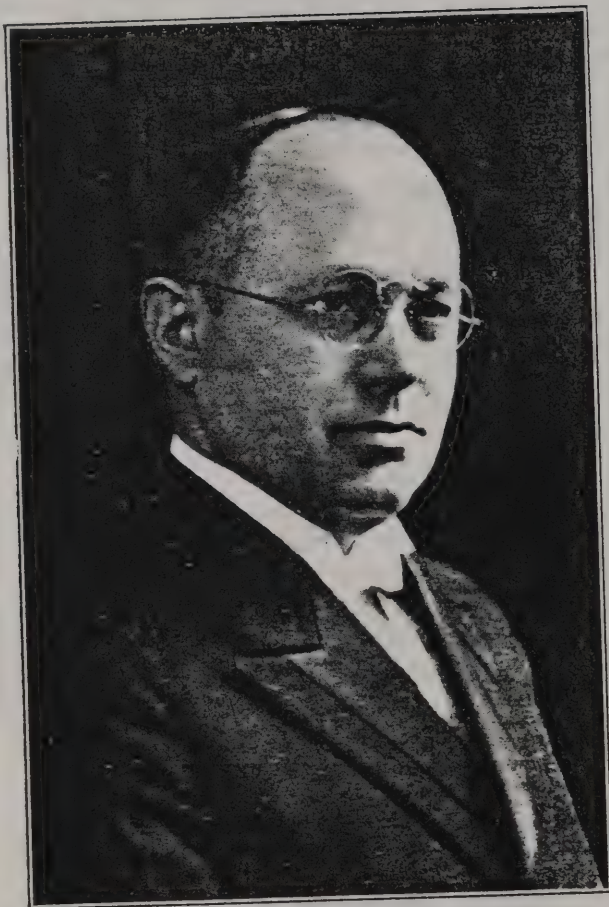

By Members of this Congregation to Perpetuate the Memory and Pious Services of

THE REV. JOHN HENRY HOFFMEIRER,

Born at Anhalt-Coethen, Germany.

March 17th, 1760.

He was a graduate of the Theological University at Halle, 1782; embarked for the U. S. of A., 1793. He became pastor of this congregation in 1806, and died a faithful servant of the Lord Jesus Christ, March 18th, 1836.

REV. JOHN L. GUTH

was born in Jefferson, Pa., on April 4, 1887, the son of Rev. and Mrs. F. A. Guth. After having completed the required preliminary education, he entered Ursinus College, from which institution he was graduated in 1911. Rev. Guth took his theological course in Central Seminary at Dayton, Ohio, completing his work in 1915. After graduation, he received a call from the Jefferson charge in York County, Pa., within the bounds of Gettysburg Classis. On September 14, 1915, he was received by the said Classis and on October 3, 1915, he was ordained and installed as pastor of the aforementioned charge.

On January 1, 1919, he received the call to assist his father in the labors of the Jordan charge. In the spring of 1921 he was also elected supply pastor of Christ Church at Shoenersville. Under this arrangement he divided his time between the two places of service. After the death of his father in 1923, he was elected pastor of the Jordan charge. He continued to supply the Shoenersville congregation until the spring of 1924, when he resigned in order that he could devote all his time to the one charge.

Rev. John L. Guth has the unique distinction and honor of a son following the footsteps of a father in the ministry. The congregations to which he has been called were all previously served by his father. His pastorate of three years at Shoenersville was a pleasant one, for to him it was "coming home."

REV. BECKER

November 17th, 1756, there was born in Anhalt-Coethen, Germany, a boy who was destined to be a bright light in Germany and in America. In his infancy he was dedicated to the Lord in holy baptism and named Karl Christian Ludwig Becker, the grandfather of Cyrus J. Becker. Confirmed in youth and united with the Reformed Church, he was educated in his home town and at the age of 18 years entered the university at Halle, and after four years entered at Bremen and remained 14 years for research work. In 1793 he emigrated to America. He was called by congregations at Easton, Mt. Bethel, Plainfield and Dryland. In 1795 he was called to Baltimore and continued to 1818. He prepared 14 young men for the holy ministry. He had an only son, Jacob Christian Becker, the father of Cyrus J. Becker. He was born January 14, 1790, at Bremen, and came with his parents to America. He was educated in the Lancaster schools and Franklin College, and besides was instructed by his father.

Rev. Dr. Becker was licensed to preach at 18 years and was called to Manchester, Md. He was in delicate health and studied medicine. He was called to Allen, Moore, Hanover, Lehigh, Towamencin, and one other charge, and in 1847 to Lower Saucon. He began to preach at Bethlehem in 1850 and at Catasauqua at the same time. He declined a call to the Seminary. Rev. Dr. Becker was a scholar, physician, educator and faithful preacher.

From the vast extent of his charge, embracing towards the close of his life, eight regularly organized congregations, and extending from the Saucon Valley, south of the Lehigh, to the foot of the Blue Mountain range, some sixteen or twenty miles north, we can easily see what an enormous amount of labor it must have required to meet its ever-increasing wants.

After his health was once fairly established, he exhibited the most astonishing powers of endurance, laboring almost incessantly, being out by day and by night, preaching the gospel on the Sabbath, and visiting the sick and the dying, during the week.

Besides the duties of the sacred office, which, in his large and laborious field, were sufficiently arduous for any ordinary man, Dr. Becker also devoted a large portion of his long and eventful life to the practice of medicine. As a homeopathic physician he stood high in the estimation of the public. During a period of twenty-six years he discharged the responsible duties of a practicing physician. His practice, too, was very extensive and successful. Many of the poor of his charge were thus attended to physically as well as spiritually. Dr. Becker was just as eminent in healing the physical diseases of his parishioners, as he was successful in ministering to their spiritual necessities.

Dr. Becker was a warm friend of the Church of his fathers, and, during all her troubles and conflicts, he remained faithful and true to his spiritual mother, and was always found ready to defend her doctrines and customs when assailed. As a physician, spiritually and bodily, he often stood beside the bed of sickness, ministering comfort to the afflicted and distressed, either restoring them again to life and health, or softening the pillows and alleviating the pains of the dying. Such was the office, high and responsible, in which our departed brother served his generation.

The congregations which he so long and faithfully served have since erected a beautiful marble monument to his memory—an honor to the departed as well as to themselves.

The monument stands near the center of the cemetery of the long served Salem Church, in the borough of Bethlehem. It is of beautiful marble and superior workmanship, about ten feet high, and bears the following inscriptions:

Kind, Faithful and True,

Labored in the Ministry of the

German Reformed Church

Fifty-one Years, and in his

Recent Pastoral Charge

Forty-seven Years.

Rev. Cyrus J. Becker was born April 18th, 1827, near Kreidersville, Northampton County, Pa., was baptized and confirmed, educated in the district schools, entered the Classical Preparatory School, Easton, and later Lafayette College, where he graduated at the age of 18 years. He studied theology one year under his father, and two years at Mercersburg. He took special courses in Hebrew and was licensed in May, 1848. He assisted his father till 1850. He began the pastorate of Towamencin and Big Moore charge, and continued till 1854, when, on account of ill health, he resigned. He taught school and in 1858 succeeded his father as pastor of Howertown, Shoenersville and Catasauqua. He resigned the Catasauqua Church in 1870, but continued Howertown and Shoenersville till 1902, when he resigned the above named congregations as pastor. He kept and preached a living faith.

Through the death of father Cyrus J. Becker, August 22nd, 1907, there ends a noble ministry of three generations and an active ministry in the Reformed Church of over 150 years. Father and son served the same charge 91 years. Rev. Becker possessed naturally a very strong mind, which had early been brought under strict scientific discipline, so that he thought logically on any subject he took in hand.

His influence over the minds and hearts of his parishioners was very great, and for ages to come the Church will continue to feel the influence of his long, laborious and earnest ministry.

In the literary and theological institutions of the Church, as well as in the cause of missions and beneficiary education, Rev. Cyrus Becker always took a deep and lively interest. Even to the close of life, he read with intense interests the accounts of our benevolent societies; and it did his heart good to hear of the prosperity of Zion.

Many a long and weary day had Rev. Becker lived and labored in the vineyard of his Master, and faithfully cultivated the garden of the Lord. Many of those beautiful plants, and "trees of righteousness," which, by his ministry, were set in its rich and productive soil, fostered and reared by his tender care and solicitude, moistened by his tears, and fitted for Heaven, have already gone before him, to bloom in richer soil and beneath a milder sky and warmer sun, to shed their sweet fragrance over the dear homes of the blest.

As a speaker, Rev. Becker was fluent, earnest and impressive. His voice was soft, agreeable, distinct and musical. He is survived by two sons, Rev. Jacob Becker, of New York, and the well known and successful Dr. A. J. Becker, of Catasauqua, Pa. Rev. A. P. Frantz preached his funeral sermon, from II Timothy, 4: 7-8.

REV. F. A. GUTH

REV. F. A. GUTH.

Rev. F. A. Guth was born near Allentown, Pa., on July 2nd, 1854, baptized and confirmed in the Jordan Reformed Church, by Rev. Dr. E. J. Fogel. He received his preliminary education in the township schools, and attended the Keystone State Normal School under the principalship of Rev. Dr. N. C. Schaeffer. He taught school a number of terms in his native county.

In 1876 he was enrolled in the preparatory department of Ursinus College, near Philadelphia. In 1881 he was graduated from Ursinus College with honors.

In 1884 he completed his theological course in Ursinus Seminary, and in the same year he was licensed and ordained by Lehigh Classis to preach the holy gospel. In May he received and accepted a call from York County, Pa. May 21, 1884, he entered upon his field of labor. His efforts were crowned with success, until 1900, when throat weakness obliged him to tender his resignation.

In 1902 he entered upon his present field of labor as supply. In connection with this work, he also filed a vacancy in the North Bethlehem Reformed Church, until East Pennsylvania Classis constructed Shoenersville Charge, by uniting Rittersville and Shoenersville congregations. After the completion of the above mentioned charge, Rev. F. A. Guth became the pastor of this flock, where he has labored ever since, breaking the bread of life unto his faithful people.

Rev. Guth then accepted the pastorate of the Jordan Reformed charge in Lehigh County, where he succeeded the late Rev. E. J. Fogel, D. D. This charge comprises the congregations of Jordan, Cedarville and Morganland. He then had the honor of being the pastor of the church which for him had been his spiritual home. This charge he served until the time of his death, September 27, 1923. He was buried on October 3, 1923, in Grandview Cemetery, Allentown, Pa.

REV. JOSHUA S. BARTHOLOMEW was born March 22, 1863, at Bath., Northampton County, Pa. He was the son of Joshua Bartholomew and Sarah Ann Bleiler Bartholomew. His boyhood days were spent in the town of his nativity. His early training and instruction was obtained at home and in the public schools at Bath. Later he attended the Academy and Ursinus College at Collegeville, Pa., the former for a period of two years and the latter for the same length of time. He then entered the Ursinus School of Theology at Philadelphia, and after a course of three years was graduated May 8, 1900. He was at once elected the Reformed pastor of the Lenhartsville charge in Berks County, which consists of these six churches: Zions, in Perry Township; New Jerusalem (Dunkels) in Greenwich Township; Friedens (Wessnersville) in Albany Township; St. Paul's, in Windsor Township; New Jerusalem (Red Church) in Albany Township; St. Paul's Chapel, Virginsville. His total membership numbered more than 750 people. In the year 1908, Zions Union Church in Perry Township erected a new church edifice at a cost of more than $35,000.00, which sum was all paid during his pastorate. This church building is one of the most beautiful in rural Pennsylvania, and stands as a lasting monument to Zion's Church members and pastors. No little credit is due to Rev. Bartholomew for the part he performed so faithfully and conscientiously in the erection of this large handsome edifice.

On September 1, 1911, Rev. Bartholomew accepted the call from the Shoenersville charge, which consisted of St. Peter's Church, Rittersville, and Christ Church, Shoenersville. He began his ministerial duties on October 1 of the same year. His installation took place in the Shoenersville Church, November 19, 1912. The committee on installation were: Revs. H. J. Ehret, of Bethlehem; Edwin W. Lentz, of Bangor, and Titus C. Strock, of Bethlehem. Rev. Bartholomew moved with his family to Allentown, Pa., April 1, 1912.

On August 5, 1883, he married Mary J. Funk, daughter of Abraham and Sarah (Hower) Funk. To this union have been born four children: Calvin S., Harry U., Ruth S. and Joshua F.

Pastor Bartholomew continued his labors until his death. He was ailing for more than a year but was confined to his bed for only one week. He died of a complication of diseases at the age of 57 years, 11 months, 1 day.

His funeral was held from the late residence, 2001 W. Broad Street, Bethlehem, on March 1, 1921, at noon. Services were conducted in the Rittersville Church by Revs. H. J. Ehret and Harvey T. Sell. The sermon was preached by Nevin D. Bartholomew of Buffalo, a nephew of Pastor Bartholomew. Short services were also conducted in the Snyder's Church. His body was then buried in the Snyder's Church Cemetery.

REV. GEORGE J. LAUBACH was born at Macada in Bethlehem Township, Northampton County, Pa., June 27, 1892. He is the son of Hiram U. Laubach and Ida L. (nee Gernet). He attended the local school and later continued his studies at the Moravian Parochial School and the Moravian College in Bethlehem. He graduated from both institutions, receiving the collegiate A. B. degree in 1912. Having a desire to enter the Christian ministry, he matriculated at the Theological Seminary of the Reformed Church in the United States at Lancaster, Pa. There he pursued the curriculum for the B. D. degree. In 1915 he was graduated and submitted himself to East Pennsylvania Classis for examination and licensure. On May 2, 1915, at the annual meeting of Classis convening in Nazareth, Pa., he was given the proper credentials to enter the ministry.

Having supplied the Howertown charge as supply pastor for a period of almost one year previous to graduation, he now was a candidate for the holy office. The charge gave him a unanimous call. On July 4, 1915, he was ordained to the gospel ministry in St. John's Church, Howertown, by his own pastor, the Rev. H. J. Ehret. From that time to the present he has been serving the same charge.

The charge at the time consisted of the following congregations: St. John's, Howertown; St. Peter's, Seemsville, and Christ, Walnutport. After a few years of service, Classis saw fit to dissolve the Walnutport congregation from the charge due to its distance in location from the other two congregations. In 1924, Christ congregation, Shoenersville, at its own initiative, petitioned Classis to be reunited with the Howertown charge. During Pastor C. J. Becker's pastorate the congregations of Shoenersville and Howertown had been a charge. Rev. Laubach was then elected pastor of Christ congregation, in which office he has now served since May 16, 1924.

On February 14, 1917, Pastor Laubach was united in holy wedlock with Miss Verona P. Brotzman, who shares with him the joys and sorrows of the ministerial calling. One son, George, Jr., has come into their family life.

LUTHERAN PASTORS

REV. JOHN FREDERICK ERNST

Rev. John Frederick Ernst was the first Lutheran pastor of Christ Evangelical Lutheran congregation. For the last quarter of a century or more it was thought that Rev. John Faust had been its first pastor. But after a thorough investigation we are compelled to call Rev. John Faust a myth. Not a word could be learned concerning him from any old records. Hence the error must have occurred in translating Rev. Ernst's name, which we find neatly written in the first church record of Christ Church (then Zion's).

We find his name frequently mentioned in the Hallische Nachrichten and the Documentary History of the Lutheran Ministerium of Pennsylvania. When Synod met at Tulpehocken, October 4-5, 1779, it was Resolved, That candidate Ernst's license be renewed until the next Synodical conference and be exhorted to continue to apply himself to theological studies and especially to the ancient languages. Before coming to America he had been a student at Strasburg.

On October 4, 1780, when several members of the Ministerium were assembled in Senior Muhlenberg's dwelling at New Providence, a letter from the New Hanover congregation, dated September 24, 1780, was read in which that congregation thanked the Ministerium that it had till then supplied them with services of worship through candidate Frederick Ernst. At the same meeting a petition was received from the congregation at Easton, Greenwich, N. J., Dry Land and Moore Township, signed by the elders and deacons of the four congregations, twenty-one persons, in which they requested that candidate Mr. Frederick Ernst, who until now had preached and administered baptism in

New Hanover as a licensed candidate, be examined by the assembled members of the Ministerium, with their approbation be ordained to the holy ministry and be appointed to their congregations, as they had sent along a call for Mr. Ernst. They further desired again to be united with the Synod. Synod resolved to comply with the above request and after his examination he was ordained by Sen. Muhlenberg to serve in the ord's vineyard.

The following letter was then sent to Easton and the congregations united with it:

Providence, Oct. 4, 1780.

Honored and Honorable Elders and Deacons of our United Congregations in Easton, the Dry Land, Greenwich and Moore Township, Beloved Fathers and Brethren in Jesus Christ, our Lord:

We, the undersigned, at present an appointed committee of the United Evangelical Ministerium in Pennsylvania, etc., after our hearty greetings and benedictions from the richness of the grace of our Blessed Saviour, and give notice that we safely received your petition of Sept. 18, 1780, and considered it, and according to your earnest request, in a meeting held in New Providence, Oct. 4, with the consent of our President, examined Mr. Frederick Ernst in theology, in accordance with your wise counsel and the conditions suggested, received him into our union, and by reason of the regular call he had received from the honorable elders and deacons of the four congregations, ordained him teacher and pastor of those congregations with the laying on of hands in the hope that he will take heed unto himself and unto the pure Evangelical doctrine, through God's grace and help, illustrate his doctrine by his life and walk, so that he and they who hear him may be saved through Jesus Christ. I Tim. 4:16.

He accepted the extended call and removed to Easton, Pa., and the following year his parish declared their satisfaction with Rev. Mr. Ernst. In 1782 the same declaration was repeated to Synod by a delegate from the Greenwich congregation. Between 1781 and 1782 he moved to Greenwich, owing to having been forced to give up the congregation at Easton. This congregation had taken a vagabond (as pastor). Synod was satisfied to have him continue as pastor of the other three congregations. When Synod met at York, Pa., June 15-17, 1783, he preached in the afternoon of the 15th, on Jno. 12:26, his theme being "The blessedness of the true servants of Christ."

The same year congregations in Ober Permudian, Unter Permudian, Dover, Paradise, Carlisle and Lower Settlement desired Rev. Ernst to become their pastor. He undertook to visit them on his way home from Synod, which had met at York, nearby.

At the meeting of Synod Rev. Mr. Ernst asked how he should deal with certain public slanderers, whether he should bring them before the authorities or not. This was asked for by the majority of one of his congregations. He was advised: (1) He should secure a testimonial of his conduct from those preachers who had most come in contact with him before his ordination. Pastors Schultze, Kunze and Muhlenberg did this in full conviction that he was innocent. (2) For the present he should not bring it before the authorities, but for Christ's sake bear everything in patience. (3) If the congregations are not satisfied with these decisions, he shall yield in God's name, and accept other congregations which earnestly desired him.

That Rev. Ernst was true to his name is seen by the great and good work accomplished from November 26, 1783, to June, 1784, when he reports to Synod 350 baptisms, 225 confirmations, communion 1200, and funerals, 31.

He served this, his first parish, until the spring of 1791. His last baptism in (Zion's) Christ congregation, Shoenersville, was that of John Adam Fatzinger, son of Henry Fatzinger and his wife Catharine, a born Weber, February 7, 1791. The sponsors were Adam Reber and wife Maria.

This same spring he moved to Maxatawny. During his pastorate there he attempted to serve St. Paul's Church, Trexlertown. But the congregation at Macungie remonstrated against his action, owing to its proximity to Macungie.

His stay at Maxatawny was very brief. In 1794 we find him at Hudson, N. Y., where he served Zion's congregation at Leonenberg, now Athens, Green Co., St. Matthew's, East Camp, now Germantown, Columbia Co., N. Y., St. Thomas, Churchtown, Columbia Co., N. Y. He also preached occasionally at Albany, N. Y. He remained at

Hudson until 1798. In 1797 Dr. Kunze, of the N. Y. Ministerium, reported that Rev. Ernst had become a Free Mason, and in 1803, upon promise of not again attending the lodge, was regarded a member of the Pennsylvania Ministerium. In 1804 he served as pastor of the small Hummelstown, Pa., church. The total receipts of this congregation including the erection of a church, for the first three years, was 140 pounds, 18 shillings and 6 pence. In 1805 he resided at Manheim, Lancaster Co. He died in 1805

REV. G. JOSEPH WICHTERMAN

The second Lutheran pastor was Rev. George Joseph Wichterman. His ministry starts in the early spring of 1792.

The first official notice we have of him is found in the minutes of the Ministerium, June 20, 1791. Two delegates from Bedminister Township, in Bucks Co., asked in the name of the congregation (Keller's Church) for Mr. Wichterman as their pastor, whereupon it was, Resolved, That Rev. Wichterman write a brief exposition on John 3:16, and that afterwards he be more fully examined on this passage and his exposition. The following day, June 21, 1791, his exposition was read and after being further examined, the Ministerium found that it might well venture to give the said Wichterman a license for one year.

From the official records of the congregation we learn that Rev. Wichterman performed official acts in the Shoenersville congregation as early as March 18, 1792, upon which date he baptized William Henry, son of John Keim and his wife Elizabeth, a born Klase. The sponsors being William Henry Hummel, Matthew Hummel's lediger sohn (single son) and Christina Klase, ledig (single). He also confirmed a class of catechumens on April 14, 1792, and administered Holy Communion to a total of 42 communicants. Synod met at Lancaster, June, 1792. Here letters concerning Mr. Wichterman were presented containing testimonials from his former and his present congregations, both speaking well of him. His ordination was requested by his present congregations, but it was resolved that his license be renewed.

In 1793, Valentine Waldman, a member of Christ Church, was sent as a delegate to Synod, meeting May 27, in Philadelphia. The following day he, according to a previous request, handed in three sermons, his license, a short diary and favorable testimonials. His license was renewed on May 29, 1793. At this time he reports to Synod as follows: Schools, 2; baptized, 25; confirmed, 11; communicants, 123; buried, 5. Candidate (Rev.) Wichterman was recommended as a suitable candidate to a congregation at Frederickstown, Md., but the following year, 1794, writes an excuse for absence to Synod in which he also states that he had visited Frederickstown but was not well received there and now is serving East Camp and other congregations in New York state. In 1795 Dr. Kunze writes to Synod that the Ministerium in New York state ordained candidate Wichterman. He had studied under Dr. Kunze. After and previous to his ordination he served the congregation at West Camp, Ulster Co., N. Y., about 15 miles north of Kingston. Between 1794-1802 he was the pastor of Gilead congregation, Feilstown, now Centre Brunswick, New York. We find that he belonged to the 13 original organizers of the New York Ministerium, having signed its constitution; also Rev. J. F. Ernst.

During the building of the Hudson & Erie Canal many Pennsylvania Germans came to New York state and we find Rev. Wichterman preaching for them in the neighborhood of Lake Seneca.

REV. JOHANN CONRAD YEAGER

The subject of this sketch and his wife, Barbara, a born Schmidt, were both born in York County, Pa., near the town of York.

Father Johann Conrad Yeager was a cigar-maker, and kept a small tobacco store in the town of York. He had already three children when he concluded to devote himself to the office of the Christian ministry. The circumstance which led him thereto was the following: One day as Mr. Yeager was sitting at his bench, engaged in making cigars, his pastor, Rev. Dr. Goehring, who served the Lutheran congregation at York, and on whose ministry Mr. Yeager had been a faithful attendant, came to his store to buy some cigars. Dr. Goehring had had his mind on Mr. Yeager for quite a while believing him to be destined for the ministry. This thought was not a stranger, it is believed, to Mr. Yeager himself, though he never gave vent to it, from the fact that he little thought it possible that, situated as he was, such a design could be consummated. Dr. Goehring on this occasion approached Mr. Yeager, and, looking over his shoulders as he was engaged in rolling cigars, said: "Johann, I want you to come to my house; you have gifts for something better than cigar-making. You should become a minister of the gospel." Mr. Yeager had enjoyed the privilege of attending school in his youth, and by faithful study had gained such knowledge as the schools of his day afforded. With this limited preparatory education he came to Dr. Goehring, and entered on a course of study for the ministry. Among the branches undertaken by him was the very difficult study of Greek, in which language he afterwards always studied the texts of his sermons. After one year's study under Dr. Goehring, while he at the same time also continued his little business by which means he gained a livelihood for his family, he went, by recommendation of Dr. Goehring, to Philadelphia. Here, as was the custom in those days, candidates for the ministry pursued their studies under the city pastors, receiving such instruction and attention as these men could give them in connection with their pastoral labors. Mr. Yeager became the student of Drs. Schmidt, Schaeffer and Helmuth. The instruction, whatever there was of it, was thorough and practical. Mr. Yeager, being a very faithful student, at the expiration of one year had made such progress that his preceptors presented him to the Synod for examination. He was found prepared to enter the ministry of the Lutheran Church, and was licensed by the Synod of Pennsylvania.

After his reception into the Synod, he was called to serve three small congregations in New Jersey, a short distance beyond Easton, the old so-called "Straw Church" in Greenwich township, Warren Co., constituting one of his congregations. While he was pastor here, he at one time came to Easton to purchase a few articles at the store of Mr. Herschter. Mr. H. had knowledge of Mr. Yeager and had heard many favorable reports of his work. Mr. Yeager was in straitened circumstances and poorly clad. Mr. Herschter viewed his seedy clothes and then questioned him in relation to his wants. "I see many things in your store," Mr. Yeager said, "that I ought to have, and of which my family stands in need, but I have no money to purchase them, and so I must be content without them." "Go," said Mr. Herschter to his clerk, "cut off a suit of clothes for Mr. Yeager, fit him a hat, cut off a dress for his wife, weigh twenty pounds of sugar, some coffee and other articles needed in the family." "Take them along," said Mr. H., "and have a suit made up first of all for yourself, so that you may have a presentable appearance when you go away from home." "Yes," said Mr. Y., "but I have no money to pay for these articles." "No matter about that now," said Mr. H.; "you can come in a year or two, when you have earned some money, and make payment." The hearts of Mr. Y. and his wife and children were made glad by such kindness shown them in their extremity by this Christian friend. A year or two rolled by. Mr. Yeager's labors were crowned with success. He was doing a good work in his parish. But still the state of his exchequer was not flush. He, however, had not forgotten his benefactor, and came again to the store one day to pay part of his indebtedness. "How are you getting along now, Mr. Y.?" said Mr. H. "Right well," replied Mr. Y.; "and I have come to pay part of my bill, though I am still too poor to pay the entire amount." "Give him a receipt," said Mr. H., "for the whole. I hear so many good things of you that I am amply repaid, and I will cancel your entire bill." That Mr. Yeager was made happy beyond measure by this unexpected kindness, need scarcely be stated. He went home rejoicing.

Mr. Yeager's second charge was Williams township, Northampton Co., and Saucon (Friedensville), Lehigh Co. The Saucon congregation was organized by him. He preached temporarily in Mr. Morey's barn during the time that the church edifice was being built. This was in 1793. Dryland, Schoener's and Allentown were subsequently added to the charge. During all this time he lived in Williams township. He now moved to Hanover, having bought a farm there of 236 acres. Their his son, Joshua, was born, he having been the youngest of a family of nine sons and two daughters. Rev. J. Conrad Yeager labored in this charge with great success to the end of his life, which occurred November 8, 1832, aged 64 years and 24 days. His wife, Barbara, died September 9, 1847, aged 86 years, 2 months and 2 days. Both rest in peace in the old Shoenersville cemetery.

REV. JOSHUA YEAGER

He was born September 23, 1802, was baptized by his father in infancy and confirmed by the same on the second Sunday after Easter, 1817, and received as a communicant member of Christ Evangelical Lutheran Church, Shoenersville, Pa. His education was limited to a thorough instruction by his father in the three Rs. Equally thorough was his religious training, since this was regarded as the chief thing. Reading of the Scriptures and writing out what was remembered, to the extent of a sheet a day, constituted part of his home instruction in the family of Father Yeager. His son Joshua had, it is true, received this thorough instruction, yet his education was quite limited in the sense that the word "liberal education" is, at present, understood. After he had attained the age that he could make himself useful on the farm, his daily employment consisted of manual labor, which, on a farm of 236 acres, left but little time for study or recreation.

While following the plow one Summer day, his father came out and accompanied him to the farther end of the field. Joshua could hardly reconcile this unusual occurrence. But, when the end of the furrow was reached, his father said to him: "Wait a little while. I have something to tell you. I want you, with God's help, to become a minister." This unexpected suggestion really frightened Mr. Yeager. "Come to my room to-morrow morning," continued Father Y. "Leave your plow, there are others to attend to it. I wish to give you a three months' trial to ascertain whether you have talent for the ministry; if you have, you shall continue your studies—if not, I will then tell you so." Father Yeager handed his son a Latin grammar, saying: "This is a comparatively easy study, but it will furnish you a knowledge of the system of grammar in general, which is so necessary for the study of all languages. Study this two hours, and then ask me all the questions you can, about what you understand and all that you do not understand. After that come down and go into the garden, and take such exercise and do such work as you may wish. In the evening you will again take two hours of study, and thus continue on." In this way Mr. Yeager studied. His father was a drill-master and disciplinarian, and knew how to create and maintain an interest on the part of his student. Especially, however, did he observe and keep a close surveillance on the conduct of his son. He impressed him with the importance and responsibility of the work, and constantly urged upon him to observe such a conduct as is becoming a candidate for the Christian ministry, and which may meet with the approval of God and man. This education, so often neglected on the part of those to whom young men who have the ministry in view are entrusted, but which is so essential to the formation of the character of the true minister of Jesus Christ, exerted a most powerful and an abiding influence on the mind of young Yeager. To this may be attributed, perhaps as much as to anything else, that devotion, earnestness and zeal which characterized Rev. Joshua Yeager's ministry through the long period of well nigh three score years among a people whom he served so long and loved so well.

At the meeting of the Evangelical Lutheran Ministerium of Pennsylvania, held in the week of Trinity Sunday, 1827, Mr. Yeager was examined with two other candidates for licensure. Rev. Dr. F. W. Geissenhainer, of New York City, was the chairman of the Examining Committee. The examination was very thorough. Mr. Yeager well remembered how he was examined on Oriental customs, and when requested to translate the account of the Transfiguration in Math. XVII into German from the Greek, Dr. Geissenhainer was well satisfied with the translation till the Greek verb nposyxeiv was reached, when he was excited and almost angered at Mr. Yeager's rendering, as he translated it: "they bowed as if they seemed to worship." Dr. Geissenhainer thundered out, "What! not seemed so, it was so," and remarked, "it can be seen with whom he studied." The three candidates made a very satisfactory examination and were admitted to the Synod licentiates.

At the Synodical meeting of the following year, which was held at Reading, Mr. Yeager's preparations were reported "very good." On this occasion he also preached before the Synod on the last evening of the session, Tuesday evening, July 3rd, 1828, on the text: 1 Tim. IV, 12-16.

From 1827 to 1831 he was the assistant of his father in his four congregations, Freidensville, Allentown, Schoenersville and Hecktown. In 1831 his father gave him the Friedensville and Allentown congregations and retained for himself the other two. Upon his father's decease, in 1832, he was also elected pastor of the other congregations.

Joshua Yeager's large field of labor extended over an immense territory, and at least a dozen congregations have sprung, in part or entirely, from his original pastorate, such as Apple's Church, Hellertown, South Bethlehem, Bethlehem, West Bethlehem, Salisbury, Altona, Rittersville, Catsauqua, Howertown, Bath, St. Paul's, St. Michael's, St. John's and St. Peter's, Allentown, etc.

He remained the pastor of the Allentown Church (St. Paul's) till 1853, twenty-two years. This congregation enjoyed unprecedented prosperity during Father Yeager's pastorate. He preached regularly every two weeks and held also week-day evening services. About the time of his withdrawal from the congregation, Rev. Dr. B. M. Schmucker, who followed Dr. Yeager in a very few months to the better world, was called as assistant pastor by the English speaking portion of the congregation.

The Friedensville Church was served longest of all by him as regular pastor, from May 2nd, 1831, to Trinity Sunday, 1885, fifty-four years. Adding to this the period during which he served the congregation as assistant of his father, his service extended over fifty-eight years.

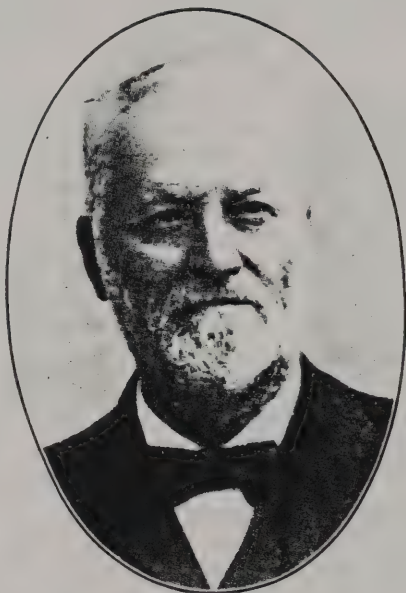

Of the Shoenersville Church he was pastor a year less. He was elected pastor of this church in December, 1832, and continued till Trinity Sunday, 1885, over fifty-three years. In connection with his father his ministration extended over the same length of time.

The Lehigh Church, in Lower Macungie, Lehigh County, he served from August 21st, 1842, to Trinity Sunday, 1885, forty-three years.

The Rittersville Church was built in 1842 (the congregation having been organized by Father Yeager out of Shoenersville. Here he preached his last regular sermon on Ascension Day, 1885.

Besides these four congregations, he also served Jerusalem Church, in Salisbury, from 1843 to 1883, Macungie from 1856 to 1867, and Hecktown, Northampton County, from 1832 to 1842.

Besides laboring successfully in a large and laborious parish, he took a great interest in the higher education of our clergy. He was a member of the Board of Trustees of Muhlenberg College from 1867 to 1876. He died August 1st, 1888, aged 88 years, 10 months and 8 days. On the following Thursday his remains were interred in Fairview cemetery, Allentown.

His wife, Maria, was a daughter of Jacob and Maria Grim, of Friedensville, Pa. Together they were blessed with two sons, Robert J. and Dr. Theodore C., and three daughters, Mrs. J. B. Reeme, Amanda, first wife of J. B. Reeme, and Sarah W.

REV. ABRAHAM REASOR HORNE

Rev. Abraham Reasor Horne was born in Springfield township, Bucks township, Pa., and was a son of Daniel L. and Mary (Reasor) Horne. The home of his birth is still standing on the farm that Dr. Horne owned at the time of his demise. He was born March 24, 1834. He attended private schools and Pennsylvania College, at Gettysburg, graduating in 1858. Early in life he took to teaching and for three years taught public school half a mile from his home. In 1854 he taught at Bethlehem, Pa. From 1858 to 1863 he was principal of the Bucks County Normal and Classical School, assisted by Dr. H. L. Baugher, later Professor of Greek at Gettysburg College.

Dr. Horne was ordained a Lutheran clergyman in 1859, together with Revs. O. Leopold and B. Zweizig, both of whom have also gone to their reward. He had a charge in Northampton County from 1863 to 1865, when he was called to the Lutheran church at Williamsport, where he remained until 1872. From 1867 to 1872 he was also superintendent of schools of that city. From 1872 to 1877 Dr. Horne was principal of the Kutztown Normal School and increased its enrollment to over 500 students. At the same time he also supplied various Lutheran churches, Chestnut Hill, near Limeport, Pa., being one of them.

Dr. Horne came to Allentown in 1877 as principal of the Normal and Academic Department of Muhlenberg College, where he remained until 1882. Then he was elected president of the Texas University, and in 1882 and 1883 he did institute work in Louisiana and Texas, and the following year in New Jersey. In 1885 Rev. Joshua Yeager, who had succeeded his father, John Conrad Yeager, in a large Lehigh County parish, resigned because of his advanced years. Dr. Horne served the Shoenersville, Rittersville, Friendsville and Lehigh Churches, also several preaching stations, amongst which were the chapels at Seidersville and Alburtis. He served as president of the large Allentown Conference. Dr. Horne was the founder of the National Educator, at Quakertown, in 1860, moved it to Allentown in 1877 and continued as editor to the time of his death.

Dr. Horne was a jovial Pennsylvania German. He was a recognized authority on the dialect and published a handbook on the language as spoken; also botany, experiments without apparatus, and was a frequent contributor to educational and religious papers. He was frequently elected to membership in the School Board of his ward in Allentown, and always manifested great interest in the work. He also served as a member of the Board of Control from 1885 to 1891. Lebanon Valley College, Annville, conferred upon him the title of D. D. in 1881.

Dr. Horne was married to Jemima E., daughter of David and Sarah Yerkes. Six children were born unto them: Sadie J., wife of Hon. Joseph Mayne; Hattie B., wife of Harry A. Grammes; David R., Esq., Thomas K. B., Augustus F., and M. Luther, now teacher in the Allentown High School. He died suddenly, December 23, 1902, and his remains rest in peace in Fairview cemetery, Allentown. Dr. Horne was of a genial nature and generous disposition, always cheerful and a friend to rich and poor alike.

REV. JEREMIAH JACOB SCHINDEL, D. D.

Rev. Jeremiah Jacob Schindel, D.D., was born in Allentown, Pa., October 25, 1876. His father, Rev. Jacob Daniel Schindel, D.D., was pastor of St. Paul's Church, Catasauqua, for twenty-one years, and of St. John's Church, Mickley, for forty-one years. His grandfather, Rev. Jeremiah Schindel, was the first pastor of each of these congregations.

Rev. J. J. Schindel was graduated from Muhlenberg College in 1896 and from the Philadelphia Seminary, Mt. Airy, in 1899. He was ordained by the Ministerium of Pennsylvania in 1899 and became assistant to his father in the Whitehall Parish, consisting of congregations at Mickley, Coplay, Egypt, Cementon and Laury's Station. On the death of his father he succeeded him as pastor at Mickleys and Coplay, the other congregations having been made a separate charge.

In the fall of 1916 St. John's Church, Coplay, became a separate parish and Pastor J. J. Schindel became the first pastor of the newly constituted Mickleys-Shoenersville Parish. On June 1, 1919, he became pastor of St. Mark's Church, Philadelphia, serving until Easter, 1928; during which time St. Mark's Church was moved from Spring Garden Street near Nineteenth to Oak Lane, Philadelphia, after merging with the Church of the Holy Spirit in Fern Rock, Philadelphia.

Since the fall of 1928 Pastor Schindel has been serving as pastor of Christ Church, Chestnut Hill, Philadelphia. He has served three years as President of the Philadelphia Conference and is a member of the Executive Board of the Ministerium of Pennsylvania. During his pastorate at Shoenersville he also served as Lutheran Camp Pastor at Camp Crane, Allentown.

REV. EDWIN H. EBERTS

Rev. Edwin H. Eberts was a son of Charles Eberts and his wife, Esther, a born Fehnel, and was born in Moore Township, Northampton Co., Pa., October 5, 1861. He received his early education in the public schools of his native township. Having fitted himself for the profession, Rev. Mr. Eberts taught school in his native township for two years and in Lower Saucon for eight years. While teaching in the last named township, he was married to Eva D. Apple, June 16, 1883. While residing in Lower Saucon he held the office of Justice of the Peace.

Desiring to take up the ministry, Mr. Eberts took a course at Muhlenberg College and later was graduated from Mt. Airy Seminary, at Philadelphia, Pa., class of 1892. He was ordained to the ministry in Trinity Lutheran Church, Reading, June, 1892. During the fall of 1892 he accepted the pastorate of the Turbotsville, Pa., parish, consisting of the Turbotsville and Washingtonville congregations, which he served successfully for nine years.

He resigned his parish in 1901 and located at West Bethlehem, Pa., in order to avail himself of the better schools for educating his children. During the illness of Rev. J. Steinhauser, pastor of St. Michael's, Allentown, he served as supply pastor for about three months. Later he accepted a call to the pastorate of the North Bethlehem, Jerusalem, in Eastern Salisbury township, and St. John's, in Williams township. He resigned this field to accept a call to the Shoenersville-Rittersville parish, in July, 1903. He was installed September 27, 1903. His labors here were exceptionally successful. New methods for conducting the finances of the congregation, and liturgical services at Rittersville were introduced and all looked bright for a successful pastorate when he was stricken with typhoid fever, which terminated fatally at his home, West Bethlehem, Pa., April 2, 1904, aged 42 years, 5 months and 27 days. He rests in peace in beautiful Nisky Hill cemetery, Bethlehem, Pa. Four children besides his widow survived, Grace M., Warren L., Charles T. and Helen A.

The subject of this sketch was a man apt to teach and loved the profession. When a resident of West Bethlehem he frequently acted as substitute in the High School. For some time he was a member of the faculty of the Bethlehem Preparatory School. He was a man who could sympathize with those who tried to earn part of their way through college. When the writer, I. B. R., was a student at the Seminary, he showed him no little kindness, took him into his home and assisted him in every manner to make his stay pleasant and his work amongst his people profitable.

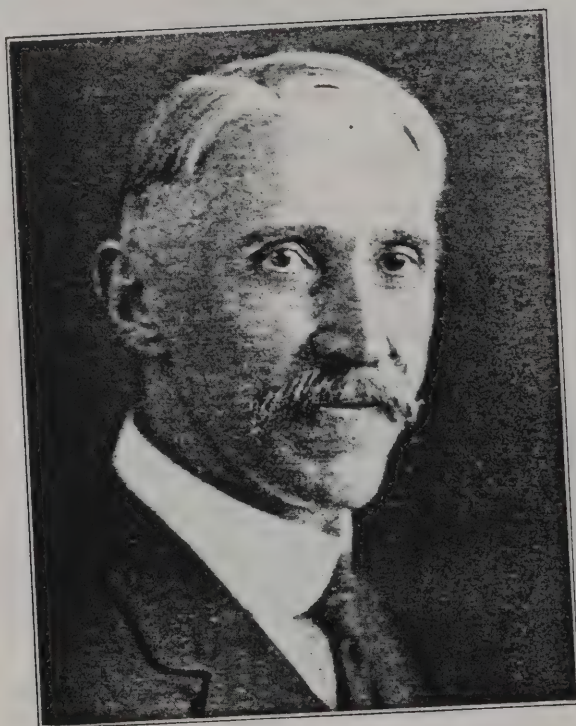

His death came at a time when the Shoenersville-Rittersville parish looked forward to a very successful pastorate.

REV. ALFRED OLIVER EBERT

Rev. Alfred Oliver Ebert is a son of Amandes and Sarah A. Ebert and was born in Lynn Township, Lehigh County, Pa., February 19, 1870. Like the majority of our Lehigh County pastors, his childhood and early youth was spent on the farm. His early education was received in the public and select schools of his native township. Lynn township can boast of good select schools. Many of the public school teachers are there prepared for teaching.

REV. EDWIN H. EBERTS

REV ALFRED O. EBERTS

Amongst the great number was Rev. Ebert, who taught successfully for three terms. During this time he prepared for entrance at Muhlenberg College in the fall of 1889. He graduated with the class of 1893. In the fall of the same year he entered the Lutheran Theological Seminary at Mt. Airy, graduating May 26, 1896. On June 1st, of the same year, he was ordained to the Holy Office of the Ministry in St. John's Lutheran Church, Allentown, Pa. The Audenried-Beaver Meadow parish, of near Hazleton, Pa., had extended him a call, which he accepted on June 7, 1896.

With enthusiasm he took charge of the field, which needed a conscientious and painstaking leader, the field being Home Mission territory. St. Paul's, Beaver Meadow, congregation had been temporarily organized March 16, 1896, without having a permanent church home. By God's grace and blessing, Rev. Ebert gathered a nice congregation and aided them in securing their own church. In May, 1897, they purchased a lot, laid the corner-stone August 22, and dedicated their church December 26, 1897. The same year they also purchased an organ, which was dedicated October 18, 1897. The Salem, Audenried, congregation made marked progress during his pastorate. A debt of $800, resting on the congregation, was soon paid off. The interior of the church was beautified with new carpets, electric lights were installed, stained glass windows replaced the old windows, and other necessary repairs were made.

His work here, while strenuous, was nevertheless most pleasant and successful. He ended his work in this parish to accept a call extended by the Shoenersville-Rittersville parish, June 26, 1904, the same having been accepted to go into effect August 1, 1904. On September 25, 1904, his installation took place, the same being performed by Revs. W. D. C. Keiter, President of the Allentown Conference, and H. S. Fegely, his father-in-law. During his pastorate he raised for benevolence in Christ Church, Shoenersville, $288.86, and St. Peter's, Rittersville, $349.28. In Christ Church he received 33 new members, and dismissed 8. Confirmed 19, baptized 38, and officiated at 10 funerals. In St. Peter's, Rittersville, received 38 new members, confirmed 38, baptized 55, and officiated at 15 funerals.

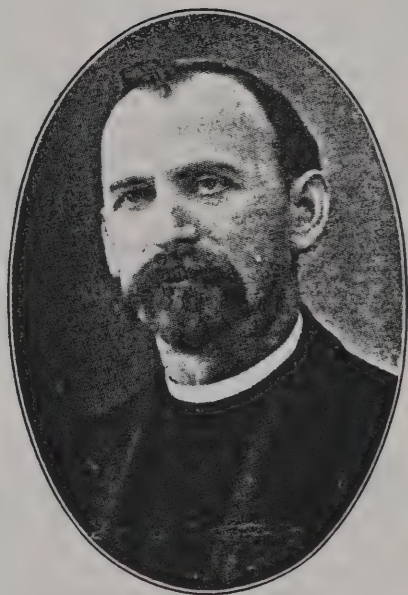

He resigned the Shoenersville-Rittersville parish, August 1, 1906, to accept the call to the New Tripoli parish, consisting of Ebenezer, New Tripoli, Jacob's, Jacksonville, Jerusalem, Albany Township, Berks County, St. Peter's, Lynnville, and St. Paul's, Seiberlingsville, congregations. Today he is preaching to his schoolmates, companions and neighbors of his youth and is respected by all. His present parish was served by his father-in-law, the Rev. H. S. Fegely. Rev. Ebert married the only child of Rev. Fegely and today occupies the old homestead in New Tripoli, together with his sons and daughters.

REV. IRWIN BEAN RITTER

Rev. Irwin Bean Ritter was born in Breinigsville, Lehigh County, Pa., July 30, 1867, being the oldest son of Dr. Nathaniel and Anna Louisa Bean Ritter. His only brother, Horace, is the Lutheran pastor of the Hellertown parish. Rev. Ritter was baptized and confirmed by Rev. Joshua Yeager, at Lehigh (Zion's) Church. Rev. Yeager served as pastor of Christ Church, Shoenersville, at this time, also St. Peter's, Rittersville, and Friedensville. After attending public school he entered the Academic Department of Muhlenberg College, where, after a year's preparation, he entered the freshmen class, graduating with honors in 1890. Entered the Lutheran Theological Seminary at Mt. Airy, Philadelphia, Pa., in the fall of the same year and graduated in the spring of 1893. He was ordained in St. John's (German) Lutheran Church, Philadelphia, and immediately after took charge of the Pyne Valley parish, consisting of five congregations. Later another congregation was added, viz., St. John's, Barry Township.

Three churches had served their purpose. Immediate steps were taken to build new edifices. Inspired by willing followers, and with the Lord's guidance, he succeeded in starting the erection of four new churches, the fourth being the outgrowth of a split, due to location. The one faction built on the old ground and the other erected their church at Klingerstown. He thus served seven congregations until in August, 1894, when he accepted a call to the Zionsville parish, consisting of four congregations. Later the Zion Hill congregation, located in Bucks County, was detached and St. Paul's, Trexlertown, added to his parish. From October, 1901, to October, 1903, he also supplied Zion, Lehigh Church, near Alburtis, Pa., this being his mother church. During his pastorate in the Zionsville parish he took an active interest also in Greater Muhlenberg, having collected from his own members over $1,300, and from friends in other congregations fully $2,500 additional.

On August 12 and August 19, 1906, he preached trial sermons in Christ, Shoenersville, and St. Peter's, Rittersville, congregations and was almost unanimously elected. He accepted the call extended and was installed December 16, 1906. During his pastorate the parish has done nothing phenomenal, but has enjoyed a steady growth. At Rittersville he aided in organizing a Willing Workers' Society and a Luther League, both having done very efficient service for local needs. Rev. Ritter prides himself on the fact that his parish is one of the first annually in raising its full apportionment for missions and benevolence. His people allowed him to introduce the envelope system to this end and recognize the wisdom of its introduction. He publishes annually a Parish Record, giving a full account of his parish work.

Rev. Ritter was married to Martha M. Leopold, daughter of Rev. O. Leopold, a former school teacher and organist of Christ Church, Shoenersville, June 22, 1893. They have been blessed with but one daughter, Miriam.

REV. HARVEY T. SELL

Rev. H. T. Sell was born in Heidelberg township, Lehigh County, near Schnecks-ville, on December 21, 1889, and is the oldest son of Tilghman Sell and the late Agnes, nee Kern. He was baptized by Rev. J. B. Fox and confirmed by Rev. J. H. Longacre. He received his early education in the Peter's school, a little red school house, located on the Schnecks-ville-New Tripoli highway. After graduating from the public schools of Heidelberg township in 1905, he entered the North Whitehall High School and graduated from the same institution in the spring of 1907. During the spring of the same year he passed the teacher's examination, under Superintendent Alvin Rupp and the two following years taught school at Mantz's, a school in his native township.

In spring of 1909 he entered the Allentown Preparatory School and graduated from the institution in the spring of 1910. During the fall of 1910, he entered Muhlenberg College, from which institution he graduated in 1914. He entered the Lutheran Theological Seminary at Mt. Airy the same year and graduated in the spring of 1917. A few months before graduation he received a unanimous call to the Weissport charge, which charge he immediately assumed after being ordained on June 6, 1917, in St. John's Lutheran church, Allentown, by Rev. H. A. Weller, D. D.

After serving the Weissport Parish, which consists of three congregations, for about a year, he received a unanimous call to the Mickley-Shoenersville charge. Altho he was loathe to leave his constituency in Weissport, which he served only for a short period, he could not resist the call of the people of Lehigh County, his native soil. He assumed charge of his new field of labor on September 1, 1918, and was later installed by his predecessor, the Rev. J. J. Schindel, D. D.

Perhaps the outstanding event in his ministry was the observance of the tenth anniversary of his pastorate in the year 1928, when his constituency turned out in large numbers to honor him and shower gifts and felicitations. His accomplishments have not been phenomenal. He prides himself in the fact that his congregations have enjoyed a healthy growth during his pastorate, and that he has been instrumental in remodeling both of his churches and given aid in the organization of a number of auxiliaries of the church.

For five years he served as Secretary-Treasurer of the Allentown Conference and for two years served as Secretary of the Ministers' League of Allentown and vicinity.

On June 1, 1915, he was married to Mame E. Wuchter of Lynnport, a graduate of Keystone State Normal School and a teacher of Lynn township schools. Their union has been blessed with four children, Harold Wuchter, Grace Mame (deceased), Betty Jane, and Robert Tilghman.

THE CHOIR

We find among the very incomplete records of Christ Church, of Shoenersville, in some entries of which this church is called Dryland Church, and in another entry Zion's Church, but we have not yet found any record of any choir or of any musical instrument used in this church during the first fifteen years of its existence. We find the following entry in one of the old records translated from the German:

On July 19th, 1793, an organ with six registers was ordered for this congregation from Alexander Schlottman, Rosecombmanor township, Berks County, for the sum of ninety pounds. This organ was brought here on March 24th, 1795, by Henry Peterson and David Deshler, son of Peter Deshler, and on Good Friday, April 3rd, 1795, it was played for the first time by John Daniel Young, the school teacher at that time, and on the 5th day of April, 1795, (Easter Sunday), by Rev. Hoffmeyer. On the 6th day of April, 1795, it was formally dedicated by Rev. Yeager in the presence of a large concourse of people. The money to pay for this organ was collected by Peter Deshler, George Ehret and Valentine Waltman through voluntary contributions. After the organ was finished everything was paid to Alexander Schlottman, first payment twenty pounds, second payment twenty pounds, and third payment fifty pounds, total ninety pounds; and eleven shillings and three pence was paid to John D. Young for board and for assisting in setting up the organ.

According to the best information to be obtained, we assume that John D. Young served as school master and organist from 1795 to about 1818, when George Hohle followed him, and served as school master and organist for about twenty-six years (from 1818 to 1844). Thos R. Weber served as teacher and organist from 1844 to 1850, a period of six years. Owen Leopold served as teacher and organist from 1850 to 1856. He was followed by Jacob Schlemmer, Edwin Boehm and James Snyder in a period of two years.

Martin Frankenfield served as organist from 1858 to 1868, when E. R. Benner was elected as organist on May 30th, 1868, and served about three years. He was followed by M. W. Arner, who served from 1871 to 1877. From 1877 George O. Rice and George A. Kleppinger served as organists. The next organist was John M. Diefenderfer, who started here August, 1880, and served until August, 1888.

The first constitution on record, by which the choir was governed, is dated August 19th, 1880, and from that time on regular choir practice was held on Saturday evenings. The following persons were members of the choir at that time:

Henrietta Hahn, Cuely Snyder, Annie Stillwagen, Mary J. Kelehner, Amanda Wint, Mary A. Zellner, Kate Sheffy, Lillie Dewalt, Lizzie Diefenderfer, E. R. Benner, George A. Kleppinger, James P. Lichtenwalner, Jr., Preston V. Snyder, John M. Diefenderfer, Jacob T. Walter, Chas. L. Heckman, Ada C. Frankenfield, Alice Daniel, Minnie E. Frankenfield.

The following members served as officers of the choir during the year 1880:

President, E. R. Benner; Vice President, Jacob T. Walter; Secretary, George A. Kleppinger; Treasurer, Mary Zellner.

At this time the organist, J. M. Diefenderfer, was authorized to secure "Kirchen-Choere" and "Laudenberger Choral Books" for the use of the choir. On September 23rd, 1882, the Shoenersville choir attended the celebration of Rev. Father Yerger's 80th birthday, at Friedensville. Mr. Diefenderfer left here in August, 1888, and Oliver H. Cressman served as supply until February 13th, 1889, on which date he was elected as regular organist of these congregations and has served continuously and faithfully until the present time. Mr. Cressman also served as assistant organist of the Sunday School the greater part of Mr. Diefenderfer's term as organist, and as organist from 1889 continuously until the present time. During Mr. Cressman's term the following books were added to the list of choir books: "Golden Anthems," "Normal Collections," "Tabernacle Anthems," and Hall and Mack. All collections lifted from the choir are for the benefit of the choir except special collections, which are given to the congregations. These special collections during the last three years amounted to $102.00.

The following are the members of the choir at the present time:

Edna Fatzinger, Addie M. Snyder, Mary Young, Meda Gable, Cora Young, Arabella Knecht, Clara J. Cressman, Anna Benner, Ella Seyfried, Victor H. Schleicher, Preston V. Snyder, B. William Laubach, O. H. Cressman, Chas. A. Heist, W. J. Kelchner.

The present organ was placed in this church in 1879, at a cost of $1,200. It was built by Charles Durner, of Quakertown. Signed:

Oliver H. Cressman, Chas. A. Heist, Isaac Dewalt, Victor H. Schleicher, Preston V. Snyder, Committee.

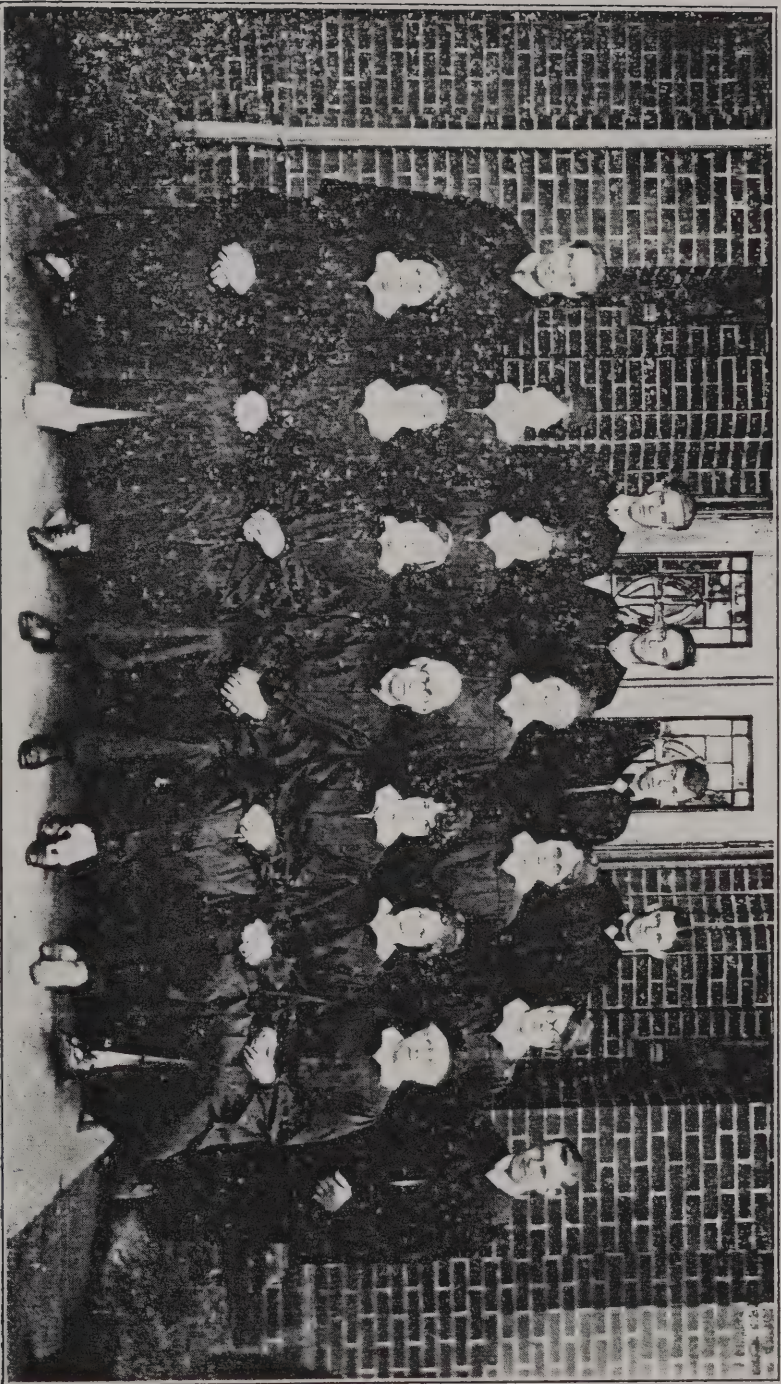

THE CHOIR

The choir of our Church has made no unusual history during the last twenty years. It has, however, served the Church regularly and faithfully. The Shoenersville Church does not know what it means to be without a choir. Her people appreciate good music and value the sacredness of our church hymns.

Mr. O. H. Cressman, the present leader of the choir, has served the congregations for a period of forty-two years. During these many years he has led the choir up across the hills of progress and down through valleys of despair. His record to which we have alluded in the Sunday School article is of historical value. His faithful wife, who is the oldest member of his choir, and he sang at more than 600 funerals during their career. It might be noted here also parenthetically, that he always goes to a great deal of trouble to prepare strong musical programs for our Quinquennial reunions.

When the old organ was removed from the rear balcony of the Church and a new organ built in the Annex together with the choir stalls placed in the chancel, the life of the choir assumed a new aspect. It was soon felt after the Church was beautified that a vested choir would add to the dignity and sacredness of the Church services. Consequently the choir, through their own initiative, gathered funds to purchase choir gowns. It necessarily followed that if the choir was gowned, the pastors should be robed. The liberality of our members made it possible for the choir to order twenty-two choir vestments and a gown for each pastor. These gowns were worn for the first time at a joint service on Holy Thursday evening in the year 1929. This change of appearance of the choir was perhaps the most outstanding item of interest in history of the choir for a good many years and it can easily be said that the change has stimulated new life and new interest amongst the members of the choir.

The choir occasionally sponsors musical programs and recently realized the sum of thirty-five dollars which was devoted to the parking ground improvement fund.

The members of the choir are as follows: Mrs. Clara Cressman, Mrs. Mary Saylor, Stella Ruth, Mrs. Agnes Fatzinger, Mrs. Erma Hahn, Dorothy J. Baker, Margaret E. Rhine, Mrs. Edna Fatzinger, Grace Lazarus, Helen Young, Pearl Bender, Francis Hartzell, Howard Hess, Wilson Riedy, Curtis Merkle, Roland Remaly, Walter Peiffer and Oliver H. Cressman, the organist.

UNION SUNDAY SCHOOL

Shoenersville Union Sunday school seems to have been organized prior to 1848, but the first records date from August 20, 1848. During these many years this Sunday school, by God's grace and blessing, has accomplished a great many things for the good of the church and the growth in the knowledge of God's word. The information about officers and teachers given in the first records is so meagre that this committee experienced great trouble to secure even what little it has obtained, however, from well-founded information, Mr. Leshner and Francis Huber served as superintendents at this time. On August 27, 1848, the records show that the Sunday school was led in prayer by the Rev. Samuel Keith, and the attendance on that day was five teachers and 94 scholars. September 10, 1848, the Sunday school was led in prayer by the Rev. Charles Berkner, and the attendance was 17 teachers and 90 scholars. The school was frequently visited by Mr. Leshner, of Catawauqua, and Rev. Schultz, of Bethlehem.

The first celebration by this Sunday school on record was held September 15, 1850, addresses being made by the Revs. Becker, Yerger and Eberman. October 5, 1851, a joint celebration was held with the Rittersville school, at Rittersville, with addresses by the Revs. Fritzinger, Lear and Schultz and Mr. Weiss.

The school at this time discontinued its sessions during the winter months and usually opened about the first Sunday in May. From this time on to the year 1871 we have no authentic records. All that we can record is merely tradition. It is said that during this time Owen Leopold, Daniel

OFFICERS AND TEACHERS OF CHRIST UNION SUNDAY SCHOOL 1910

Ritter, David Saylor, Andrew Frankenfield and Hugh Huber served either as superintendents or assistant superintendents of this school.

The first and only early record of teachers for this school is dated April, 1849, and contains the following names: Richard Brader, Hugh Huber, David O. Saylor, Richard Snyder, Drusilla Brader, Lucretia Snyder, Lucy Brader, Mary Stuber, Catharine Snyder, Sophia Snyder, Henry Kelchner, Catharine Lazarus and G. Remandus Reichard.

The official records of 1871 show that the members of these congregations met Sunday afternoon, June 11, for the purpose of organizing a Sunday school, there having been no Sunday school at this place for two years. After singing a few hymns, they proceeded to elect officers to serve one year. The election resulted as follows: President, Richard Snyder; Secretary, E. R. Benner; Chief Superintendents, Revs. Joshua Yeager and C. J. Becker; Assistant Superintendents, Hugh Huber and M. W. Arner; Librarians, Richard Snyder and Wm. Rohn; Treasurer, Martin Frankenfield. A committee of three, viz., Edward Illick, David Heckman and M. W. Arner, was appointed to frame a constitution for the government of the Sunday school. The school at this time had twelve teachers and the largest number of scholars present on any one day was 114. The records show that Hugh Huber continued to serve as superintendent of the school until October 5, 1879, when the Sunday school discontinued its sessions until May 16, 1880, when George A. Kleppinger was elected as superintendent. From 1880 to 1884 Mr. Kleppinger served as superintendent, and E. R. Benner, Isaac Dewalt and William Heckman as assistants. From 1884 to 1887 William Heckman served as superintendent, but owing to illness the last two years, he could not serve regularly and Milton S. Kleppinger, the assistant, really served as acting superintendent.

In the Spring of 1888 Preston V. Snyder was elected as superintendent and served during 1888, 1889 and 1890, with O. H. Laub, J. A. Fatzinger and C. A. Heist as assistants. In 1891 C. A. Heist and W. D. Seyfried served as superintendents and O. H. Cressman as assistant. In 1892 Chas. A. Heist was elected as superintendent and has served continuously until the present time. His assistants during this time were W. D. Seyfried, P. V. Snyder, E. R. Benner, Owen D. Zellner, A. L. Benner and Titus C. Heckman.

From the records we find that E. R. Benner served as superintendent of the Primary school from 1880 to 1888. In 1888 Cornelius Bilheimer served as superintendent, and after that Clinton Illick, Ida Lichtenwalner and Martha J. Wagner until the end of 1893. December 30, 1893, H. A. Benner was elected superintendent of the Primary school, and has ably filled that office until the present time.

During 1891 a new constitution was adopted by the school and since that time the school transacts all its affairs at regular monthly meetings and in a regular, business-like manner.

In 1892 a library was started by the school with a few volumes, which in 1905 had increased to 115 books. Additions were continually made, so that to-day the library contains 340 volumes. These books are exchanged every Sunday, giving every one a chance to have good reading matter every week.

The old organ used by the school for many years had served its purpose, and in 1894 a committee was appointed to solicit subscriptions for a new Estey organ, which has been used until the present time with entire satisfaction. This organ was purchased by O. H. Cressman, the organist, from Estey & Bruce, at a cost of $130.00.

Financially the Sunday school has liberally aided the church, as a Sunday school should. During the past 10 years the Sunday school has paid over $400.00 for repairing, painting and carpeting the basement of the church; over $62.00 for laying a cement walk around the church premises; $50.00 for building a cistern; $44.00 for book-racks; $90.00 for erecting an iron fence along the old cemetery; $20.00 for lamp-posts and lamps; and also an average of about $50.00 yearly for missionary purposes, giving one-half of this amount for the Reformed apportionment and one-half for the Lutheran apportionment, making the total sum $1,166.00.

The Sunday school is divided into two departments, the primary department and the main school. The primary department has its superintendent and two assistants. One of the commendable features of this department is the memorizing of Scripture passages. This department now numbers 79. The main school is divided into 11 intermediate classes and three Bible classes. The total number of members of this school is 199, making a total of 278 in both schools.

The Sunday school sessions continued during the whole year, and are always held at 9 o'clock A. M., except during the month of December, when they are held at 2 P. M. on account of preparations for Christmas. The festival in which the members, especially the children, take more pride than in any other, is the Christmas festival, which is always held on Christmas evening, beginning at 6.30 o'clock. The festivals are always a success and appreciated, as is shown by the large number of people in attendance.

The Sunday school also assists the church in celebrating Home Missionary, Reformation and Children's Days. The school uses the Lutheran and Reformed literature interchangeably, every year.

Since the new constitution is in force regular minutes have been kept by the secretaries, of all business transacted at the regular monthly business meetings, which are always held on the last Monday evening of each month.

Its annual picnic, which is usually held in the month of August, is generally well attended by both old and young members of this and surrounding Sunday schools and congregations. Good music for these occasions, both vocal and instrumental, has always been a special feature. The old-fashioned picnic custom of a common table is cheerfully and generously maintained. Rich and poor, friends old and new, are all invited on these occasions to enjoy the splendid meals prepared, as only Pennsylvania Germans can provide.

The members of the school were no longer satisfied with the temporary refreshment stands which they first used, and in July, 1900, by permission of the trustees, they erected a permanent stand on the church property, which has since been used for all festival occasions, both to the satisfaction of the members and the patrons.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

The Shoenersville Sunday School is a spiritual, social, educational and financial asset to the Church. Spiritual, because of the devotional character of her service; the interest manifested to young and old through the Cradle Roll and Home Departments; and Scriptural foundations implanted into our youths; — social, because of the fine fellowship permeated through the festivals and picnics and the readiness and willingness of the Home Department to serve in time of bereavement; — educational, because of the competent teachers; the various methods by which the children are taught important truths of Scriptures and commit Bible verses, hymn, etc.; the manner in which many are taught to sing and play musical instruments in public, and the splendid library that it maintains;—financial, because of the tremendous aid the Sunday School has given the Church on numerous occasions. May we be permitted at this point to enumerate some items where the Sunday School has given financial aid to the Church during the last twenty years: In 1911, paid one-third of curb and gutter; in 1913, paid for the new addition to the Church House; in 1916, wired Church grove and Church home; later purchased two pianos, one for Sunday School and the other for the Church auditorium; and in 1920, bought property from O. H. Cressman to increase size of picnic ground.

When the remodeling movement was started, the Sunday School immediately offered to pay all the furnishings of the Sunday School room, even including the windows and the floors. In addition to this, it paid the reredos of the Church, which cost $650. These funds were raised by the different classes and by special programs sponsored by the school.

SUNDAY SCHOOL OFFICERS AND TEACHERS 1930

Our School continues to be active along benevolent lines. The Children's Day offering is regularly devoted to our benevolent apportionment and for many years our School has supported an Armenian child. The needy and the afflicted of our school always get due consideration.

In August, 1925, the Sunday School erected a pavilion on the picnic grounds at a cost of $470, and recently paid for the painting of the Church House and contributed $150 to the improvement of the parking ground.

The Cradle Roll, under the direction of Mrs. Harvey Saylor, and the Home Department, superintended for a good many years by Mrs. Lillie Knauss, are both active departments of our Sunday School. The enrollment is large, their contributions are liberal, and their co-operation is splendid. The average annual income of the Home Department is approximately $150 and of the Cradle Roll, $40.

These departments were started on January 1, 1916. Mr. B. William Laubach was the first Superintendent of the Home Department and Mrs. Harvey W. Heckman of the Cradle Roll.

The Shoenersville Sunday School has manifested a healthy growth and maintained an interest in the life of the congregations ever since its organization. Perhaps the secret of its success lies in the fact that parents bring their children to the regular services instead of sending them. It is a school not only of young people, but of parents, grandparents and children. Visitors often comment on our large attendance of both old and young.

Another unusual feature of our Sunday School is the faithfulness of her teachers and officers. A good many departments and classes can point to veteran leaders. Dozens could be mentioned who served faithfully more than twenty years. We take the liberty of alluding to such outstanding veteran leaders who served in our Sunday School more than forty consecutive years.

Charles A. Heist, the present Superintendent, has served in that capacity for thirty-eight years and four years as Assistant Superintendent. He also served as teacher for forty-two years. During all these years he seldom missed a Sunday School service. His able leadership, his faithfulness, consecration, tact, intelligence and regularity has been of untold value not only to the present and past generations but will be a blessing to generations yet unborn.

Oliver H. Cressman has served as Organist and Assistant Organist for a period of fifty years. During his career he has taught hundreds to sing and play musical instruments. Only sickness has prevented him from being at his post during these many years. His services to the Sunday School and Church can not be measured in dollars and cents.

The Sunday School sustained a decided loss through the recent death of Preston V. Snyder, who the Sunday before his death announced to his class that he had completed a period of 50 years of service as teacher in the Shoenersville Sunday School. Mr. Snyder also served as Assistant Superintendent for twenty-five years. He was apt to teach, a close student of Holy Scripture, well versed on the German language and a pronounced human psychologist.

Few Sunday Schools can point to such lengthy devoted careers.

The officers and teachers of the Sunday School are as follows:—

Officers of Shoenersville Sunday School for the year 1930: President, T. C. Heckman; Vice President, John L. E. Riedy; Secretary, Harvey L. Heist; Assistant Secretary, Grover C. Knecht; Treasurer, Howard S. Schafer; Superintendent, Charles A. Heist; Assistant Superintendent, P. V. Snyder; Superintendent of Infant Department, Mrs. Eva M. Steitz; Assistants, Mrs. Alice R. Heist, Mrs. Hilda E. Shankweiler; Librarians of New Library, T. C. Heckman, O. W. Rudolph; Deacons: Luther Heckman, James Walker, Francis Hartzell, Howard Hess; Librarians: Luther Bilheimer, Clarence Rhine, Alma Abbott, Viola Hoffman; Organist, O. H. Cressman; Assistant Organists, Grace M. E. Lazarus, Dorothy E. Baker; Orchestra: Harvey H. Saylor, Robert Huber, Joseph Knecht, Wilson Riedy, Kermit Riedy, Clarence Rhine, Harold Sell; Auditors, Samuel J. Hahn, Robert P. Faust, James P. Lichtenwalner; Overseers: H. W. Heckman, William H. Huber; Superintendent of Home Department, Mrs. Lillie C. Knauss; Assistants, John L. E. Riedy, William H. Hartzell, Mrs. Edna Fatzinger; Superintendent of Cradle Roll Department, Mrs. Mary Saylor; Chaplain, Charles A. Heist; Teachers: Charles A. Heist, B. William Laubach, Ralph F. Shankweiler, Floyd A. THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETY

The Young People's Society of Christ church is a natural outgrowth of the Sunday School. For years Christian workers were trained and desires for service stimulated among the young folks but no medium of expression was proffered them before 1921. It was then, due to the influence of Messrs. B. William Laubach and John V. Shankweiler, that the young people were called together December 11, 1921, and an organization was effected. The name adopted was "The Young People's Society of Christ Lutheran and Reformed Church of Shoenersville." A constitution was prepared and adopted by which the society is governed. "The object of the organization was to interest the people, especially the young people, in the work of the church and to develop leaders to carry out the work of the church." The society began auspiciously with a charter membership of 73. Since then the number has increased.

The society meets monthly, usually at intervals of three and five weeks. Splendid programs are prepared and rendered. Musical selections, vocal and instrumental, readings, recitations, dialogues, pantomimes, plays, addresses, etc., are program features. Both young and old are invited to participate in these services. Usually the principal talk is given by a friend of the society. College students have on numerous occasions been guest speakers. Then, too, programs in keeping with the different festivals of the year are observed.

Judging the society by its merits as a social religious organization and by the patronage it has received by the old folks, it is a success. The society has also learned how to make, save and spend money wisely. It is surprising how much in a financial way this organization has been an

The Society will pay, during 1930, for the church altar. The amount is $480.00. $200.00 of this amount has already been paid.

The society's first officers were: President, Prof. John V. Shankweiler; Vice President, Mr. Ernest Seyfried; Secretary, Miss Ruth Heckman; Treasurer, Mr. Allen Heist; Pianist, Miss Hilda Heist; Ushers, Mr. Henry Fehnel, Mr. Elwood Knauss.

The present officers of the society are: President, Mr. Paul P. Huber; Vice President, Mr. Curtis Merkle; Secretary, Miss Grace E. Roth; Treasurer, Mr. Harvey R. Saylor, Jr.; Pianist, Miss Dorothy J. Baker; Assistant Pianist, Miss Annie C. Fenstermacher; Ushers, Mr. Francis Hartzell, Mr. Luther Bilheimer, Mr. Robert Huber, Mr. Howard Hess.

Program Committee: Miss Pearl Bender, Miss Margaret Rhine, Miss Annie Fenstermacher, Miss Leanore Lyon, Miss Grace Lazarus.

CEMETERY ASSOCIATION

The first cemetery was opened through the efforts of David O. Saylor, of Shoenersville. A regular association was formed May 7, 1856. A second piece of land was purchased from Jacob Cressman, through E. R. Benner and Daniel Rudolph.

The Cemetery Association was formally incorporated on March 4, 1918. The officers at that time were: President, P. V. Snyder; Secretary, O. H. Cressman; Treasurer, Victor H. Schleicher; Managers, Frank Williams, Harvey F. Buss, William H. Huber, Franklin H. Goldsmith and Charles A. Heist.

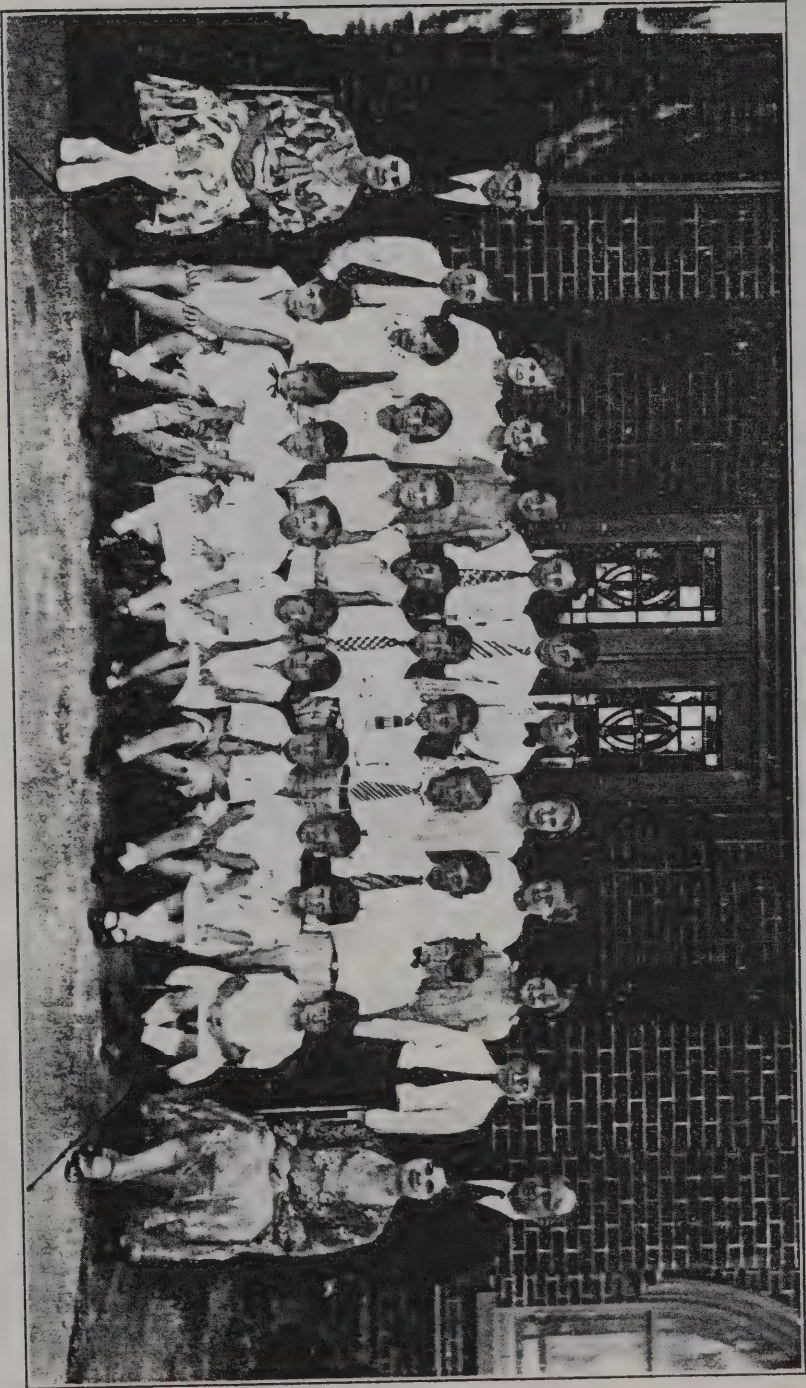

For present and historic value we note the following items: A strip of land was purchased from O. H. Cressman, May 1, 1919, for sum of $500; on April 10, 1924, a similar strip, about one-half acre, was purchased from the same person, for the same amount; in October, 1928, a cement block tool house was built; the cost of perpetual care was recently raised to fifty dollars; the present price of lots is forty and forty-five dollars; the amount in the treasury at the present time is approximately $6200; the caretaker at the present is Titus C. Heckman; the cemetery is regularly mowed and kept in first class condition.

The Secretary reports the following bequests: Mary Becker, $75; Hiram Ruch, $300; Belinda Goldsmith, $50; Peter Gruver, $100; Francis Deily, $100; James P. Wint, $300; Mary Long, $180; Nathaniel Kidd, $300; Jas. P. Lichtenwalner, $200; Howard Laudenslager, $100; Ida Seyfried, $50; Aaron Dech Est., $50; Richard Daniel, $50.

The officers of the Asociation at the present time are: President, C. A. Heist; Secretary, O. H. Cressman; Treasurer, George Steit; Managers, William H. Huber, Cyrus Huber, Harvey Saylor, T. C. Heckman and Reuben Lazarus.

DAILY VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL

Through the instigation of the pastors and the joint board a Daily Vacation Bible School was started in the summer of 1928. The school was conducted for a period of three weeks in the public school building and a demonstrative program was rendered in our church at the close of the course. The school proved successful and impressed the church members as well as the community. Hymns, prayers, Scripture verses, Bible stories, Commandments, etc. were taught. The first year's success caused a similar school to be conducted during the summer of 1929 and 1930. We present the photograph of the 1930 class in this history. During the first two years the school numbered 27 pupils, and in 1930 there were enrolled 30 pupils. Mrs. Hilda Heist Shankweiler and Evelyn Longenbach were the teachers the first two years and in 1930 Margaret Rhine and Mrs. Shankweiler taught the school. The church was fortunate in being able to secure consecrated and qualified teachers, all of them being Normal School graduates. The expenses of the school were met by voluntary contributions. It is hoped that this important phase of church work may be continued.

TEACHER TRAINING CLASS

TEACHER TRAINING CLASS

The third Teacher Training Class was started with nine members in October, 1929.

On account of ill health one of them dropped out.

The class is meeting every Monday evening and is using "Preparation for Teaching" by Charles A. Oliver. The first three parts of the book have been covered and the class has successfully passed the first three examinations.

The following comprises the class: Dorothy J. Baker, Ella M. Croasdale, Annie C. Fenstermacher, Charles T. Heckman, Paul P. Huber, Grace E. M. Lazarus, Margaret E. Rhine and Grace E. Ruth.

The class is being taught by C. A. Heist, Superintendent of the Sunday School.

LADIES' AID

On February 22, 1921, our joint board resolved that a Ladies' Aid Society should be organized, but not until November 16, 1924, were a band of workers organized, the charter membership being twenty women, willing to aid the church and to help make it the power for God it is today.

The first officers of the society were: President, Mrs. George J. Laubach; Vice President, Mrs. H. T. Sell; Secretary, Mrs. Russel Remaley; Treasurer, Mrs. L. J. Bender.

Since its organization, the Society is meeting every Thursday afternoon and evening for the purpose of quilting. The Society is always happy to welcome new members and friends to assist them in their work. Friends and members of the church are constantly supplying work to keep the ladies busy.

The Society was somewhat disappointed when the proposed social room had to be omitted in the building program, because of the expense and danger it might incur to the building, but shortly after the church was completed the second story of the meeting house was transformed into a Ladies' Aid room. Ever since, this is their regular meeting room where they do their quilting and transact their monthly business.

While our church was being remodeled the Society resolved to pay for the new organ, which was to cost $5850. By means of recitals, plays, bazaars, quilting, picnics, suppers, etc., the amount due on the organ has been reduced to $750.

Recently the Society has beautified the grounds by planting shrubbery in front of the church.

The present membership is 60, with the following officers: President, Mrs. George J. Laubach; Vice Presidents, Mrs. H. T. Sell and Mrs. Mamie Heist; Secretary, Mrs. Eva M. Steitz; Treasurer, Mrs. Ida Bender; Purchasing Agent, Mrs. Edna Fatzinger; Overseer, Mrs. Clara Cressman.

The work of our society is not done. It has only begun. Our prospects for the future are bright. May we show gratitude to Almighty God for past blessings by working together harmoniously and make the future worthy of His blessing.

BEQUESTS

We are pleased to submit to our readers the following bequests to the Shoenersville Church by members and friends:—

Joint Bequests:—Mary Long, $200 without any stipulation and $200 in trust for the care of her grave and that of her first husband, George Shrehr, on the old cemetery; Diana E. Heller, $200; Mrs. Sarah Beil, $1100; Joseph Kidd, $21,675.90.

Lutheran Bequests:—James P. Lichtenwalner, Sr., $200, and Paul Faust, $200.

Reformed Bequests:—Rev. Cyrus J. Becker, $500, and Belinda Goldsmith, $50.

Inheritance tax and lawyers' fees had to be deducted from some of these amounts.

The names of these benefactors go down into history. They will never be forgotten. Though dead and buried, their money still talks, their efforts still bear fruit, their memory still commands respect, and their means still add glory to God.

The large bequest from Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kidd made possible the remodeling of our church and the twelve-foot addition to our church is appropriately designated as the "Kidd Annex".

The memory of these God fearing and church loving people will undoubtedly inspire others still living, especially those who have no children, to remember the church in their last will and testament. By so doing, they will make it possible for the church to enlarge her program in the future and to continue the preaching of the gospel despite all counteracting influences.

Those who bequeath of their means to the Church can rest assured that after they are dead and gone, they are still contributing to the welfare of the community in which they lived and that they are constantly promoting the interests of the Church which seeks the salvation of souls, for which their children and children's children will rise up and call them blessed.
